THE

CHRISTIAN MELODIST:

A

NEW COLLECTION OF HYMNS

FOR

SOCIAL RELIGIOUS WORSHIP.

By JOSEPH BANVARD,

PASTOR OF THE HARVARD STREET BAPTIST CHURCH, BOSTON.

BOSTON:

JOHN PUTNAM, 81 CORNHILL.

NEW YORK:

L. COLBY, 122 NASSAU STREET.

TESTIMONIALS.

The publisher has received from clergymen and others in every direction, the most gratifying testimonials to the merits of the Christian Melodist. He has room only for the following.

Boston, Dec. 15, 1848.

Dear Sir,—After examining its pages, I take pleasure in saying, that I consider the “Christian Melodist” a valuable work. It contains original hymns which are beautiful, and well known hymns that to Christians will never be uninteresting. The collection is a very great improvement on hymn books of the class to which it belongs. I consider the tunes which are added, as highly increasing the excellence of the publication.

DANIEL SHARP,
Pastor of Charles St. Bap. Ch.

Similar testimonials have also been received from other Pastors in Boston, viz:—Rev. Messrs. R. H. NEALE, P. CHURCH, N. COLVER, GEO. W. BOSWORTH, WM. HOWE, P. STOW, M. SANFORD, and L. A. GRIMES.

[From Rev. R. TURNBULL, Pastor of 1st Bap. Ch., Hartford, Ct.]

“Generally the hymns are at once poetical and devout, and well fitted to express the emotions of a Christian heart. The addition of tunes at the end of the volume is a great improvement. Indeed it is the best hymn book for the vestry which I have ever seen.”

[From Rev. S. H. CONE, D. D., Pastor of 1st Bap. Ch., New York.]

“It affords me pleasure to commend it as one of the most copious and judiciously arranged hymn books I have met with. The introduction of appropriate tunes is a valuable addition, and will have a tendency, I trust, to restore to our churches the primitive practice of ‘speaking in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs,’ in which the whole congregation may make melody to the Lord.”

Like recommendations have also been received from the following clergymen in New York city, viz:—Rev. Messrs. C. G. SOMERS, E. LATHROP, W. H. WYCKOFF, W. W. EVERTS, S. REMINGTON, HENRY DAVIS, J. T. SEELY, D. DUNBAR, J. L. HODGE and C. MORTON.

“An excellent collection of hymns. It has the advantage of being adapted to the sanctuary, and to the wants of social worship. While all will find it a profitable help in the prayer meeting and in seasons of revivals, it will be particularly desirable to those churches who do not wish a more expensive book for the Lord’s day, or prefer one suited to both public and social worship.”

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1848,

BY JOHN PUTNAM,

In the Clerk’s Office of the District Court of Massachusetts.

PREFACE.

THE want of a hymn book adapted to all the purposes of social religious meetings, has for a long time been felt. Many of the books in use are so limited in their contents as to furnish but few appropriate hymns for the various purposes of these social gatherings; while others, which contain a greater variety, are printed in such small type as to render their use quite inconvenient, especially, as is too often the case, when the place of meeting is dimly lighted.

The present volume avoids both of these objections. It contains a copious variety of hymns, adapted to all the regular and the occasional meetings which are held, and is printed in large, open type, so as to be easily read.

Brevity, spirituality and earnestness are the general characteristics of the hymns. It has been a prominent object of the editor to prepare a book, which, besides being appropriate to the ordinary state of the church, should also be adapted to seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord; he has, therefore, introduced a considerable number of hymns through which the returning backslider, the weeping penitent, the trembling believer, the rejoicing convert, and the zealous, praying Christian may give solemn and earnest expression to their various religious emotions.

Special attention has been given to the cause of "Missions," and of "Sabbath Schools," by the insertion of a large number of hymns, suitable for use upon these occasions.

Each hymn has the name of an appropriate tune prefixed. The notes of these tunes are inserted at the end of the volume. This addition, it is presumed, will be highly acceptable to those who lead, and to those who unite in singing.

This work, though specially adapted to the use of social conference meetings, is, from the number and variety of its hymns, equally appropriate for public worship. It is believed, therefore, that it will meet the wants of all such churches as may not prefer a more expensive book for the Sabbath.

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

	HYMN
A broken heart, my God, my King	111
A charge to keep I have	290
Acquaint thyself quickly, O sinner, with God	86
Again, from calm and sweet repose	61
A guilty, helpless sinner, Lord	39
Alas! and did my Saviour bleed	108
Alas! what hourly dangers rise	220
All hail the power of Jesus' name	367
All ye who feel distressed for sin	148
Almighty God, thy constant care	560
Amazing grace! how sweet the sound	214
Am I a soldier of the cross	274
And canst thou, sinner, slight	91
And will the Lord thus condescend	153
And can mine eyes without a tear	346
And must this body die	519
And must I part with all I have	216
And must I be to judgment brought	523
Another day has fled	58
Arise in all thy splendor, Lord	420
Arm of the Lord, awake! awake	421
Ascend thy throne, Almighty King	436
As flies the shuttle o'er the loom	497
As pants the hart for cooling streams	10
Assembled round thine altar, Lord	27
Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep	516
Assist us, Lord, to view thy cross	377
As birds their infant brood protect	318
At anchor laid, remote from home	43
Awake, my soul, and with the sun	63
Awake, my drowsy soul, awake	277
Awake, awake, each drowsy soul	97
Awaked by Sinai's awful sound	183
Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve	287
Awake our souls, away our fears	286
Awake, ye saints, and raise your eyes	499
A wail comes o'er the wave	579
Be firm and be faithful	294
Behold, a stranger at the door	145
Behold the ark of God	159
Behold the amazing sight	351
Behold the expected time draw near	428
Behold the gift of God	140

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

Behold, the grace appears	344
Behold the Lamb of God, who bore	352
Behold, the light is gleaming	431
Behold, the morning sun	62
Behold, the mountain of the Lord	562
Behold, what wondrous grace	212
Beneath our feet, and o'er our head	512
Believing souls, of Christ beloved	319
Beset with snares on every hand	576
Bleeding hearts, defiled by sin	120
Blest are the souls that thirst for grace	44
Blest be the tie that binds	326
Blest Comforter divine	405
Blest Jesus, while in mortal flesh	378
Blow ye the trumpet, blow	366
Bread of heaven, on thee we feed	592
Break every yoke, the gospel cries	570
Brethren, while again we venture	35
Broad is the road that leads to death	80
Children of the heavenly King	241
Children our kind protection claim	456
Christ and his cross is all our theme	387
Christ had his sorrows, so must thou	382
Come, Christian brethren, ere we part	25
Come, dearest Lord, and bless this day	73
Come, dearest Lord, descend and dwell	23
Come, divine and peaceful guest	407
Come, happy souls, approach your God	355
Come, happy souls, adore the Lamb	583
Come hither, all ye weary souls	132
Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove	404
Come, Holy Spirit, calm each mind	396
Come, Holy Spirit, come	399
Come, Holy Spirit, come	393
Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove	392
Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly guest	398
Come in, thou blessed of the Lord	316
Come, let us lift our joyful eyes	18
Come, let us join to praise the Lord	334
Come, let us join our cheerful songs	364
Come, let us now forget our mirth	457
Come, Lord, in mercy come again	198
Come, my soul, thy suit prepare	52
Come, shout aloud the Father's grace	242
Come, sound his praise abroad	17
Come, 't is Jesus' invitation	135
Come, thou fount of every blessing	211
Come, thou Almighty King	413
Come to Calvary's holy mountain	154
Come, we that love the Lord	248
Come, weary sinner, in whose breast	150
Come, ye sinners, poor and wretched	156

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

Come, ye weary souls oppressed	158
Creator God, thy glories blaze	552
Dear Father, to thy mercy-seat	265
Dear Saviour, hear our prayer	482
Dear Saviour, prostrate at thy feet	114
Dear Saviour, when my thoughts recall	126
Dear Saviour, we are thine	272
Dear Saviour, we rejoice to hear	317
Delay not, delay not, O sinner, draw near	36
Death cannot make our souls afraid	514
Death floats on every passing breeze	518
Death has been here and borne away	479
Deep are the wounds which sin has made	360
Did Christ o'er sinners weep	380
Do we not know that solemn word	582
Dread Jehovah! God of nations	548
Earth's stormy night will soon be o'er	492
Earthly joys no longer please us	292
Encompassed by ten thousand ills	275
Escape for thy life, O look not behind	34
Eternal Father, God of love	266
Eternity is just at hand,	493
Eternal Spirit, God of truth	395
Every sheaf of golden grain	555
Faith adds new charms to earthly bliss	218
Faith I need, O Lord, bestow it	222
Faith is the brightest evidence	223
Faith, 't is a precious grace	224
Faith is the Christian's prop	228
Faithful, O Lord, thy mercies are	330
Farewell, dear friends, I may not stay	191
Far from my thoughts, vain world, be gone	55
Father, I stretch my hands to thee	226
Father, whate'er of earthly bliss	262
Father, I bless thy gentle hand	303
Father, I know thy ways are just	315
Father of heaven, whose love profound	412
Father of mercies, in thy word	416
Father, we come with filial fear	466
For a season called to part	30
Fount of everlasting love	202
Friends of freedom, swell the song	565
From all that dwell below the skies	593
From earliest dawn of life	463
From every stormy wind that blows	259
From Greenland's icy mountains	422
From thee, my God, my joys shall rise	246
From whence doth this union arise	321
Gently, Lord, O gently lead us	300
Give me the wings of faith to rise	535

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

Give to our God immortal praise	557
Glory to God the Father's name	29
God is love, his mercy brightens	337
God is my strong salvation	281
God of my life, thy constant care	498
Gracious Spirit, Love divine	394
Grace, 't is a charming sound	213
Grant the abundance of the sea	574
Great God, and wilt thou condescend	469
Great God, the nations of the earth	434
Great God, thy penetrating eye	340
Great God, to thee my evening song	69
Great God, with wonder and with joy	448
Great God, we sing that mighty hand	504
Great God, whose universal sway	429
Great Shepherd of thy people, hear	14
Guide me, O thou great Jehovah	268
Hail! sweetest, dearest tie that binds	197
Hail, thou long expected Jesus	343
Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning	433
Hail to the Lord's anointed	569
Hallowed cross, my God revealing	373
Happy the heart where graces reign	231
Happy the man that finds the grace	165
Happy the souls to Jesus joined	166
Hark! a distant voice is calling	447
Hark! from yon wilds is heard the strain	444
Hark! my soul, it is the Lord	54
Hark! the herald angels sing	345
Hark! the glad sound, the Saviour comes	348
Hark! the herald angels say	388
Hark! the gospel trumpet's sounding	160
Hark! the Sabbath bells are ringing	485
Hark! the Saviour now is pleading	40
Hark! 't is our heavenly Leader's voice	280
Hark! the voice of love and mercy	354
Hark! the wail, the voice of anguish	568
Hark! what mean those lamentations	443
Hasten, Lord, the glorious time	450
Haste, O sinner, now be wise	89
Hear, gracious Sovereign, from thy throne	195
Hear, O sinner, mercy hails you	152
Hear us, Father, while we cry	566
Here, at thy cross, incarnate God	371
Here, in thy presence, gracious God	20
Here, in thy name, eternal God	559
Here we meet with joy together	477
He that goeth forth with weeping	291
Hither we come, our dearest Lord	586
Ho! every one that thirsteth	131
Holy Ghost, dispel our sadness	196
Holy Ghost, with light divine	406

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

Holy Jesus, lovely Lamb	264
Holy Lord, lend now thine ear	459
Holy Saviour, thou hast told us	473
How blest the sacred tie that binds	327
How blest the righteous when they die	510
How beautiful the sight	322
How can I sink with such a prop	299
How can we see the children, Lord	489
How happy every child of grace	172
How happy is the Christian's state	171
How happy is the child who hears	470
How helpless guilty nature lies	401
How oft, alas, this wretched heart	110
How peaceful is the Christian's breast	239
How shall the young secure their hearts	481
How sweetly flowed the gospel's sound	141
How sweet the melting lay	21
How sweet the light of Sabbath eve	76
How sweet to leave the world awhile	6
How sweet, when worn with cares of life	254
How sweet, how heavenly is the sight	324
How shall the sons of men appear	365
How long shall virtue languish	563
How will my heart endure	520
How vain a thought is bliss below	536
If I perish I will go	124
If human kindness meets return	363
I love the closet's calm retreat	59
I love to have the Sabbath come	486
I love the sacred book of God	418
I love thy kingdom, Lord	323
I love to think of that blest hour	181
I'm not ashamed to own my Lord	289
In all my Lord's appointed ways	178
In all my vast concerns with thee	339
In God let all his saints rejoice	313
In one fraternal bond of love	328
Inscribed upon the cross we see	386
In the cross of Christ I glory	379
In thy great name, O Lord, we come	1
Inquire, ye pilgrims, for the way	12
Inquiring souls, who long to find	155
In vain my fancy strives to paint	517
In vain we wait his presence now	478
I send the joys of earth away	177
Is there no hope? O sinner, pause	138
Is this the kind return	81
It is the Lord, enthroned in light	302
Jerusalem! my glorious home	544
Jesus, at thy command	577
Jesus, and can it ever be	580

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

Jesus, dear name, how sweet the sound	37
Jesus, full of all compassion	112
Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory	390
Jesus, I love thy charming name	236
Jesus, I my cross have taken	376
Jesus invites his saints	590
Jesus, let not thy grace delay	19
Jesus, lover of my soul	270
Jesus, mighty king in Zion	585
Jesus, my King, proclaims the war	276
Jesus, my truth, my way	282
Jesus, thou art the sinner's friend	122
Jesus, to thee, to thee alone	361
Jesus, to thy celestial light	176
Jesus shall reign, where'er the sun	425
Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding	308
Jesus, who knows full well	263
Joy is a fruit that will not grow	245
Joy to the world, the Lord is come	347
Just as I am, without one plea	109
Kindred in Christ, for his dear sake	320
Laden with guilt, and full of fears	417
Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us	472
Let everlasting glories crown	415
Let songs of praises fill the sky	403
Let those who love the Lord rejoice	13
Let worldly minds the world pursue	189
Let God the Father, and the Son	596
Life but a fleeting vapor is	494
Life is the time to serve the Lord	508
Lo! Jesus, the Saviour, in mercy draws near	99
Lord, at thy table we behold	589
Lord, hear a burdened sinner mourn	118
Lord, help me to repent	119
Lord, I am thine, entirely thine	179
Lord, let thy kingdom come	464
Lord, let thy Spirit deign to stay	15
Lord, look on all assembled here	547
Lord of heaven, and earth, and ocean	554
Lord, send thy word and let it fly	561
Lord, teach us how to pray	475
Lord, 't is sweet to mingle where	28
Lord, though thy wisdom takes away	305
Lord, thou hast searched and seen me through	341
Lord, thou hast won — at length I yield	190
Lord, we address thy heavenly throne	467
Lord, we come before thee now	3
Lord, what a feeble piece	495
Lord, when thine ancient people cried	567
Lord, when we bend before thy throne	257
Look, ye saints, the day is breaking	419

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

Love is the strongest tie	232
Lo! what an entertaining sight	325
Mighty Redeemer, set me free	106
Morning breaks upon the tomb	389
Mourning sinner, come to Jesus	146
My dear Redeemer, and my Lord	349
My Father's house, my Father's house	541
My God, how endless is thy love	57
My God, my life, my love	237
My God, the spring of all my joys	251
My God, thy boundless love I praise	329
My God, my Father, blissful name	307
My God, permit me not to be	267
My faith looks up to thee	227
My soul, be on thy guard	271
My soul, repeat his praise	331
My soul would fain indulge a hope	229
My times of sorrow and of joy	301
Nature with open volume stands	370
No more, my God, I boast no more	384
Nor eye hath seen, nor ear hath heard	529
Not all the blood of beasts	221
Not all the outward forms on earth	397
Now begin the heavenly theme	250
Now be the gospel banner	441
Now, gracious Lord, thine arm reveal	505
Now is done the time of teaching	484
Now is the accepted time	104
Now is the day of grace	142
Now let our mourning hearts revive	513
Now let our souls on wings sublime	240
Now let our voices join	252
Now the shades of night are gone	56
Now to the Lord a noble song	391
Now to the Lord that makes us know	358
Now to the power of God supreme	356
O, blessed souls are they	147
O bless the Lord, my soul	553
O come, let us sing to the Lord	16
O come, in life's gay morning	471
O, could I find, from day to day	258
O'er the gloomy hills of darkness	424
O for a breeze of heavenly love	573
Of all the joys we mortals know	235
O for a closer walk with God	255
O for a faith that will not shrink	225
O for a heart to praise my God	269
O for an overcoming faith	515
O for that tenderness of heart	116
Oft have our ears, great God, been taught	550

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

O God, my inmost soul convert	522
O God of mercy, hear my call	113
O God of sovereign grace	430
O happy Christian, who can boast	173
O happy day that fixed my choice	174
O happy souls that pray	24
O happy soul that lives on high	244
O holy Father, 'mid the calm	2
O how divine, how sweet the joy	187
O how happy are they	185
O how shall I repay	65
O Jesus, full of grace	296
O Keeper of thine Israel	33
O Lord, behold us at thy feet	488
O Lord, I would delight in thee	247
O Lord, our God, arise	437
O Lord, our languid souls inspire	42
O Lord, thy work revive	194
O may I never turn aside	41
Once more, my soul, the rising day	60
Once was heard the song of children	487
One more petition, O our God	31
One prayer I have — all prayers in one	314
One there is above all others	357
On Jordan's stormy banks I stand	530
On thee, each morning, O my God	66
O Saviour, welcome to my heart	182
O shun the bowl, when rich delight	564
O sinner, bring not tears alone	546
O sinner, hear the heavenly voice	88
O sinners, now to Christ draw near	45
O speak that gracious word again	297
O speed thee, Christian, on thy way	284
O Spirit of the Lord	9
O Sun of righteousness, arise	206
O, that I could, like Mary, dwell	233
O, that my load of sin were gone	121
O Thou, from whom all goodness flows	309
O thou, my soul, forget no more	591
O, thou Sun of glorious splendour	451
O Thou that hearest prayer	402
O Thou that hear'st when sinners cry	107
O turn ye, O turn ye, for why will you die	85
Our Captain leads us on	273
Our helper, God, we bless thy name	502
Our little bark, on boisterous seas	572
Our Saviour bowed beneath the wave	588
Our sins, alas! how strong they be	531
Our souls, by love together knit	11
O, what amazing words of grace	136
O! what am I? My soul, awake	261
O, where shall rest be found	542

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

O, why should sinful men below	186
O Zion, tune thy voice	438
Plunged in a gulf of dark despair	368
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow	595
Praise the Lord, who reigns in heaven	556
Praise to God, the great Creator	558
Praise to the Lord on high	205
Prayer is the breath of God in man	253
Prayer is appointed to convey	260
Prayer is the soul's sincere desire	256
Quench not the Spirit of the Lord	78
Rejoice, for Christ the Saviour reigns	199
Religion bids all sin depart	161
Religion is the chief concern	168
Religion's dictates can assuage	167
Remark, my soul, the narrow bound	500
Remember thy Creator	455
Repent, the voice celestial cries	100
Return, O wanderer, now return	51
Return, O wandering soul, return	295
Revive thy churches, Lord, with grace	208
Rise, glorious Sun, supremely bright	249
Rise, gracious God, and shine	439
Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings	288
Roll on, thou joyful day	571
Roll on, thou mighty ocean	432
Rouse ye at the Saviour's call	93
Salvation is forever nigh	362
Salvation! O the joyful sound	359
Saviour, hear us, through thy merit	127
Saviour, visit thy plantation	192
Saw ye not the cloud arise	201
Say, sinner, hath a voice within	83
See, another year is gone	506
See how the fruitless fig-tree stands	503
See Israel's gentle Shepherd stand	480
Shine, mighty God, on Zion shine	426
Show pity, Lord, O Lord, forgive	115
Since we, and all our treasures too	243
Sing we to our God above	600
Sinner, art thou still secure	102
Sinner, O why so thoughtless grown	84
Sinner, rouse thee from thy sleep	87
Sinners are bending	193
Sinners, behold the Lamb of God	144
Sinners, exposed to dreadful woe	50
Sinners, hear the mighty Saviour	137
Sinners, hear the melting story	462
Sinners, the voice of God regard	95
Sinners, this solemn truth regard	35

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

Sinners, obey the gospel word	130
Sinners, turn, why will ye die	139
Sinners, will you scorn the message	151
Sinner, what hast thou to show	103
Soldiers of Christ, arise	283
Soldiers of Christ, lay hold	279
Soldiers of the cross, arise	278
So let our lips and lives express	164
Soon will set the Sabbath sun	461
Sound, sound the truth abroad	452
Sovereign of all the worlds on high	215
Sovereign of worlds, display thy power	440
Sovereign Ruler, Lord of all	123
Sow in the morn thy seed	293
Spirit divine, attend our prayer	411
Spirit of holiness, descend	408
Spirit of holiness, look down	207
Stand up, my soul, shake off thy fears	285
Strait is the way—the door is strait	217
Swell the anthem, raise the song	551
Sweet is the work, my God, my King	72
Sweet is the work, O Lord	71
Sweet the moments, rich in blessing	331
Sweet the time, exceeding sweet	22
Teach us, O Lord, the great concern	163
Teach us, O Lord, we earnest pray	458
Tell me, wanderer, wildly roving	101
That awful day will surely come	521
The blesséd Spirit, like the wind	409
The day is drawing nigh	210
The day is past and gone	64
The day of wrath, that dreadful day	525
Thee we adore, Eternal Name	501
The eye of God is everywhere	342
The great Redeemer we adore	531
The hour of prayer once more is come	8
The Lord our God is Lord of all	338
The mellow eve is gliding	68
The morning light is breaking	446
The pity of the Lord	335
There is a fountain filled with blood	143
There is a hope, a precious hope	230
There is a house not made with hands	511
There is a land mine eye hath seen	545
There is a land of pure delight	527
There is an hour of hallowed peace	537
There is an hour of peaceful rest	526
There is a path that leads to God	170
There is a place of sacred rest	540
There is a region lovelier far	543
There is a sin, a fearful sin	94
There is a world of perfect bliss	533

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

There's not a star whose twinkling light	333
The Saviour calls, let every ear	149
The Saviour! O what endless charms	353
The seraphs bright are hovering	483
The time is short, the season near	491
The voice of Wisdom cries	169
Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love	74
This world is all a fleeting show	538
This world's not all a fleeting show	539
Though hard the winds are blowing	578
Thus far the Lord has led me on	67
Thus was the great Redeemer plunged	584
Thy healing Spirit, Lord, impart	410
Thy kingdom, Lord, I seek	117
'T is by the faith of joys to come	219
'T is finished! so the Saviour cried	350
'T is God, the Spirit, leads	400
'T is my happiness below	298
'T is religion that can give	162
'T is the blest, the favored hour	203
'T is time to seek the Lord	26
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost	597
To God the Father, God the Son	594
To God the Father's throne	599
To him who loved the souls of men	385
To-morrow, Lord, is thine	496
To thy temple I repair	463
To our Redeemer's glorious name	233
Wait, my soul, upon the Lord	311
We are but young, yet we may sing	474
We come, O God, with gladness	476
We come, O Lord, before thy throne	575
Weep for the lost! thy Saviour wept	105
Weep not for the saint that ascends	445
Welcome, delightful morn	70
Welcome, sweet day of rest	77
Welcome, welcome, quiet morning	465
We sing the mighty power of God	332
We've no abiding city here	523
We would see Jesus — does not he	123
What glory gilds the sacred page	414
What heavenly music do I hear	134
What is the thing of greatest price	98
What raptures fill the mind	374
What sinners value I resign	534
When blooming youth is snatched away	509
When God revealed his gracious name	184
When I can read my title clear	532
When I survey the wond'rous cross	383
When marshalled on the nightly plain	175
When, O my Saviour, shall this heart	369
When overwhelmed with grief	306

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

When shall the voice of singing	423
When the worn spirit wants repose	75
When Thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come	524
When thy mortal life is fled	92
Where are the dead? in heaven or hell	90
Where two or three, with sweet accord	7
While life prolongs its precious light	79
While Thee I seek, protecting Power	4
While the heralds of salvation	427
While with ceaseless course the sun	507
Who can describe the joys that rise	188
Who can forbear to sing	200
Why should the cross of Christ offend	375
Why should thy face, where mercies dwell	549
Why should we spend our youthful days	460
Why sleep ye, my brethren? come, let us arise	209
Why will ye waste, on trifling cares	96
Within these doors assembled now	5
Within these quiet walls, O Lord	490
With willing hearts we tread	587
Would you win a soul to God	157
Ye angels round the throne	598
Ye Christian heroes, go, proclaim	442
Ye dying sons of men	129
Ye earthly vanities, depart	234
Ye hearts with youthful vigor warm	454
Ye messengers of Christ	449
Ye humble souls, approach your God	336
Ye saints, your music bring	372
Yes, I have found 't is good for me	304
Ye sinners, fear the Lord	82
Yes, I will be forever thine	180
Yes, my native land, I love thee	453
Ye trembling souls, confession make	125
Ye trembling souls, dismiss your fears	312
Ye wretched, hungry, starving poor	133
Zion's King shall reign victorious	435
Zion stands, with hills surrounded	310

Prayer Meeting. — Hoskins.

- 1 IN thy great name, O Lord, we come
To worship at thy feet ;
O, pour thy Holy Spirit down
On all that now shall meet!
- 2 We come to hear Jehovah speak,
To hear the Saviour's voice ;
Thy face and favor, Lord, we seek—
Now make our hearts rejoice.
- 3 Teach us to pray and praise, to hear
And understand thy word ;
To feel thy blissful presence near,
And trust our living Lord.
- 4 Let sinners now thy goodness prove,
And saints rejoice in thee ;
Let rebels be subdued by love,
And to the Saviour flee.

Evening Praise for Divine Goodness. — ANON.

- 1 O, HOLY FATHER! 'mid the calm
And stillness of this evening hour,
We now would lift our solemn psalm
To praise thy goodness and thy power. !
- 2 For over us, as over all,
Thy tender mercies still extend;
Nor vainly shall the contrite call
On thee, our Father, and our Friend!
- 3 Kept by thy goodness through the day,
Thanksgivings to thy name we pour;
Night o'er us, with its stars — we pray
Thy love to guard us evermore!
- 4 In grief, console — in gladness, bless —
In darkness, guide — in sickness, cheer;
Till, in the Saviour's righteousness,
Before thy throne our souls appear.

Seeking the Lord. — HAMMOND.

- 1 LORD, we come before thee now —
At thy feet we humbly bow;
O do not our suit disdain!
Shall we seek thee yet in vain?
- 2 Lord, on thee our souls depend —
In compassion now descend;
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.
- 3 In thine own appointed way,
Now we seek thee, here we stay;
Lord, we know not how to go,
Till a blessing thou bestow.

- 4 Send some message from thy word,
That may peace and joy afford ;
Let thy Spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.

Habitual Devotion. — MRS. H. M. WILLIAMS.

- 1 WHILE thee I seek, protecting Power,
Be my vain wishes stilled ;
And may this consecrated hour
With better hopes be filled.
- 2 Thy love the power of thought bestowed ;
To thee my thoughts would soar ;
Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed ;
That mercy I adore.
- 3 In each event of life, how clear
Thy ruling hand I see !
Each blessing to my soul more dear,
Because conferred by thee.
- 4 In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.
- 5 When gladness wings my favored hour,
Thy love my thoughts shall fill ;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet thy will.
- 6 My lifted eye, without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see ;
My steadfast heart shall know no fear ;
That heart shall rest on thee.

Opening of a Conference Meeting. — SELECT HYMNS.

- 1 WITHIN these doors assembled now,
We wait thy blessing, Lord!
Appear within the midst, we pray,
According to thy word.
- 2 May some sweet promise be applied,
When we attempt to read:
For this alone can give support
In every time of need.
- 3 O breathe upon our lifeless souls,
And raise our drooping hearts!
That we may see thy smiling face
Before we hence depart.
- 4 And now, O blessed Spirit, come!
We long to see thee move;
Strengthen our faith, revive our zeal,
And fill us all with love.

Converse with Christ. — KELLY.

- 1 How sweet to leave the world awhile,
And seek the presence of our Lord!
Dear Saviour, on thy people smile,
And come according to thy word.
- 2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
That we may here converse with thee:
Ah, Lord, behold us at thy feet!
Let this the "gate of heaven" be.
- 3 "Chief of ten thousand," now appear,
That we by faith may see thy face!
O speak! that we thy voice may hear,
And let thy presence fill this place.

Presence of Christ desired. — STENNETT.

- 1 WHERE two or three, with sweet accord,
Obedient to their sovereign Lord,
Meet to recount his acts of grace,
And offer solemn prayer and praise —
- 2 “There,” says the Saviour, “will I be,
Amid this little company;
To them unveil my smiling face,
And shed my glories round the place.”
- 3 We meet at thy command, dear Lord,
Relying on thy faithful word;
Now send thy Spirit from above,
Now fill our hearts with heavenly love.

The Hour of Prayer. — HOWE'S COLL.

- 1 THE hour of prayer once more is come,
And here again we meet;
Thanks to the Lord, there yet is room
To bow at Jesus' feet.
- 2 By faith in prayer before thee, Lord,
Help us to spread our case;
And to our waiting souls afford
Some tokens of thy grace.
- 3 The helpless, poor, and needy soul,
The tempted and distressed,
Dear Lord, relieve! O Lord, make whole,
And calm each troubled breast.
- 4 The faith and hope, the joy and love,
Of all thy saints increase;
Hardness and blindness, Lord, remove,
And fill our hearts with peace.

Spirit of the Lord, descend. — J. B. HAGUE.

- 1 O SPIRIT of the Lord,
 Descend in might and power,
 And thine Almighty aid afford—
 Let this be mercy's hour!
- 2 O give us hearts to pray,
 And give us power in prayer!
 Low in the dust help us to lay,
 And keep our spirits there.
- 3 Breathe on the dead in sin,
 The wounded heart make whole;
 And let thy power be felt within
 The depths of every soul.
- 4 Now let the heavens be rent,
 Thou God of love and power!
 Let quick'ning grace to all be sent;
 Let this be mercy's hour.

Panting after God.

- 1 As pants the hart for cooling streams,
 When heated in the chase,
 So longs my soul, O God, for thee,
 And thy refreshing grace.
- 2 For thee, my God—the living God—
 My thirsty soul doth pine;
 O, when shall I behold thy face,
 Thou Majesty divine!
- 3 Why restless—why cast down, my soul?
 Trust God—and he'll employ
 His aid for thee—and change these sighs
 To hymns of grateful joy.

For the spread of the Gospel. — NEWTON.

- 1 OUR souls, by love together knit,
Cemented, mixed in one, —
One hope, one heart, one mind, one voice —
'T is heaven on earth begun.
- 2 Our hearts have burned while Jesus spake,
And glowed with sacred fire ;
He stopped, and talked, and fed, and blest,
And filled th' enlarged desire.
- 3 A rill, a stream, a torrent flows, —
But pour a mighty flood ;
O sweep the nations, shake the earth,
Till all proclaim thee God !
- 4 And when thou mak'st thy jewels up,
And sett'st thy starry crown ;
When all thy sparkling gems shall shine,
Proclaimed by thee thine own —
- 5 May we, a little band of love,
We sinners, saved by grace,
From glory unto glory changed,
Behold thee, face to face.

Inquiring the Way. — ANON.

- 1 INQUIRE, ye pilgrims, for the way
That leads to Sion's hill,
And thither set your steady face
With a determined will.
- 2 Invite the strangers all around
Your pious march to join ;
And spread the sentiments you feel,
Of faith and love divine.

Encouragement to Speak. — COLVER.

- 1 LET those who love the Lord rejoice,
And let them speak their joys abroad ;
In Jesus' name lift up the voice ;
Proclaim the honors of your God.
- 2 He bore the cross, that he might bless,
And put on us a starry crown ;
Let every tongue his name confess,
And make his grace and glory known.

A Blessing sought.

- 1 GREAT Shepherd of thy people, hear ;
Thy presence now display ;
We kneel within thy house of prayer ;
O, give us hearts to pray.
- 2 Help us, with holy fear and joy,
To kneel before thy face ;
O, make us, creatures of thy power,
The children of thy grace.

L. M.

Let thy Spirit stay. — COLVER.

- 1 LORD, let thy Spirit deign to stay,
And aid us while we praise and pray ;
May we that sacred union know
Which gives a taste of heaven below.
- 2 O! touch our lips with holy fire ;
Our passions raise, our love inspire ;
Our every thought on JESUS turn ;
Make every heart with incense burn.

16.

Ss. M.

O come, let us sing. — MONTGOMERY.

- 1 O COME, let us sing to the Lord,
 In God our salvation rejoice;
 In psalms of thanksgiving record
 His praise, with one spirit and voice!
 Jehovah is God, and he reigns,
 The God of all gods, on his throne;
 The strength of the hill he maintains;
 The ends of the earth are his own.
- 2 O come, let us worship and kneel
 Before our Creator, our God —
 The people who serve him with zeal,
 The sheep who his pastures have trod!
 To him, let us hearken to-day, —
 The voice that yet speaks from above, —
 And all his commandments obey,
 For he that ordained them is love.

Praise to Jehovah. — WATTS.

- 1 COME, sound his praise abroad,
 And hymns of glory sing:
 Jehovah is the sovereign God,
 The universal King.
- 2 Come, worship at his throne;
 Come, bow before the Lord;
 We are his works, and not our own;
 He formed us by his word.
- 3 To-day attend his voice,
 Nor dare provoke his rod;
 Come, like the people of his choice,
 And own your gracious God!

C. M.

Access to God by a Mediator. — WATTS.

- 1 COME, let us lift our joyful eyes
Up to the courts above,
And smile to see our Father there,
Upon a throne of love.
- 2 Come, let us bow before his feet,
And venture near the Lord ;
No fiery cherub guards his seat,
Nor double-flaming sword.
- 3 The peaceful gates of heavenly bliss
Are opened by the Son ;
High let us raise our notes of praise,
And reach th' Almighty throne.
- 4 To thee ten thousand thanks we bring,
Great Advocate on high ;
And glory to th' eternal King,
Who lays his anger by.

When met for Worship. — GENERAL COLL.

- 1 JESUS, let not thy grace delay
To meet us with thy love ;
Drive interposing clouds away,
And make our guilt remove.
- 2 Come in with power to every soul,
O thou immortal Dove !
Make every wounded spirit whole,
With thy redeeming love.
- 3 We long to meet our God to-day,
And taste thy grace divine,
That every soul with joy may say,
My Lord, my God is mine.

20. C. M. Mear. Marlow.

Social Worship.

- 1 HERE, in thy presence, gracious God,
 We've met to seek thy face :
 O let us feel th' eternal word,
 And feast upon thy grace !
- 2 O may this be a happy hour
 To every mourning soul !
 Display thy love, make known thy power,
 And make the wounded whole.
- 3 O may a spark of heavenly fire
 Each stupid soul inflame ;
 And sacred love our tongues inspire
 To praise thy worthy name !
- 4 Let every soul the Saviour see,
 And taste his love divine ;
 And every heart forever be United, Lord, with thine.

Morning Prayer Meeting. — S. LYRICS.

- 1 How sweet the melting lay
 Which breaks upon the ear,
 When, at the hour of rising day,
 Christians unite in prayer !
- 2 The breezes waft their cries
 Up to Jehovah's throne ;
 He listens to their heaving sighs,
 And sends his blessings down.
- 3 So Jesus rose to pray
 Before the morning light ;
 Or on the chilling mount did stay
 And wrestle all the night.

Nuremburg.Enjoyment of Worship. — HYMNS OF ZION.

- 1 SWEET the time — exceeding sweet —
When the saints together meet ;
When the Saviour is the theme ;
When they join to sing of him !
- 2 Sing we then eternal love,
Such as did the Father move :
He beheld the world undone,
Loved the world — and gave his Son.
- 3 Sing the Son's amazing love ;
How he left the realms above,
Took our nature, and our place,
Lived and died to save our race.
- 4 Sing we too the Spirit's love ;
With our wretched hearts he strove,
Filled our minds with grief and fear,
Brought the precious Saviour near.

L. M.

Hebron.Prayer for Christ's Presence. — WATTS.

- 1 COME, dearest Lord, descend and dwell,
By faith and love, in every breast ;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel
The joys that cannot be expressed.
- 2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength ;
Make our enlarged souls possess,
And learn the height, and breadth, and length,
Of thine unmeasurable grace.
- 3 Now to the God whose power can do
More than our thoughts or wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done
By all the church through Christ his Son.

Happiness in Prayer. — WATTS.

1 O HAPPY souls, that pray
 Where God appoints to hear!
 O happy men, that pay
 Their constant service there!
 They praise thee still; | That love the way
 And happy they | To Zion's hill!

2 They go from strength to strength,
 Through this dark vale of tears,
 Till each arrives at length,
 Till each in heaven appears:
 O glorious seat, | Shall thither bring
 When God our King | Our willing feet!

3 To spend one sacred day
 Where God and saints abide,
 Affords diviner joy
 Than thousand days beside:
 Where God resorts, | To keep the door,
 I love it more | Than shine in courts.

Parting. — H. K. WHITE.

1 COME, Christian brethren, ere we part,
 Join every voice and every heart;
 One solemn hymn to God we raise,
 One final song of grateful praise.

2 Christians, we here may meet no more;
 But there is yet a happier shore;
 And there, released from toil and pain,
 Dear brethren, we shall meet again.

Shirland.It is time to seek the Lord. — COLVER.

- 1 'T is time to seek the Lord,
 Whene'er he hides his face,
And drooping plants and parched fields
 Cry out for showers of grace.
- 2 'T is time to seek the Lord,
 With brokenness of heart,
When Zion's base, ungrateful sins
 Have bid the Lord depart.
- 3 'T is time to seek the Lord,
 And sow in righteousness,
Till God once more shall own his cause,
 And crown it with success.
- 4 'T is time to seek the Lord,
 Till he shall send the rain
On drooping plants and parching fields,
 And they revive again.

27.

C. M.

Ballerma.Prayer for the Spirit's Presence. — BROWN.

- 1 ASSEMBLED round thine altar, Lord,
 To lift our hearts in prayer,
To read the pages of thy word,
 And learn our duty there :
- 2 We ask thy Spirit's guiding ray ;
 Thy presence we implore ;
Dear Saviour, teach us how to pray,
 And how to love thee more.
- 3 So shall our worship here below
 Resemble that above,
Where saints thy endless glory view,
 And sing redeeming love.

The Close of a Prayer Meeting. — WINCHELL'S SUP.

- 1 LORD, 't is sweet to mingle where
Christians meet for social prayer;
O, 't is sweet with them to raise
Songs of holy joy and praise;
Sweeter far that state must be,
Where they meet eternally.

- 2 Saviour, may these meetings prove
Preparations from above:
While we worship in this place,
May we go from grace to grace;
Till we, each in his degree,
Ripe for endless glory be.

29. C. M. Marlow.

Praise to the Trinity. — WATTS.

- 1 GLORY to God the Father's name,
Who, from our sinful race,
Hath chosen myriads to proclaim
The honors of his grace.

- 2 Glory to God the Son be paid,
Who dwelt in humble clay,
And, to redeem us from the dead,
Gave his own life away.

- 3 Glory to God the Spirit give,
From whose almighty power
Our souls their heavenly birth derive,
And bless the happy hour.

- 4 Glory to God that reigns above,
The holy Three in One,
Who, by the wonders of his love,
Has made his nature known.

30.

7s. M.

Edes.Parting of Christians.

- 1 For a season called to part,
Let us now ourselves commend
To the gracious eye and heart
Of our ever-present Friend.
- 2 Jesus! hear our humble prayer;
Tender Shepherd of thy sheep!
Let thy mercy and thy care
All our souls in safety keep.
- 3 In thy strength may we be strong;
Sweeten every cross and pain;
Grant, that, if we live, ere long
We may meet in peace again.
- 4 Then, if thou thy help afford,
Joyful songs to thee shall rise,
And our souls shall praise the Lord,
Who regards our humble cries.

31.

C. M.

Welford.Closing Hymn. — E. BRADFORD.

- 1 ONE more petition, O our God,
We lay before thy throne;
That thou wouldst bless us as we part,
And our weak efforts own.
- 2 O ever may the love of God
Within our bosoms glow!
And love to man, in all our acts,
The humble Christian show.
- 3 That when thou makest up thy gems
In yonder world of bliss,
It may be known that not in vain
Our mission was in this.

32.

8s. & 7s.

Mount Vernon.Closing Hymn. — H. S. WASHBURN.

- 1 BRETHREN, while again we venture
Out on life's conflicting sea,
Following in his path who leads us,
We shall more than conquerors be.
- 2 Pilgrims yet, our way lies onward,
Through a world of death and sin ;
Only they who wrestle ever,
Shall the crown of glory win.
- 3 Strengthened by this blest communion,
Heart with heart in union blends ;
O, how dear will be that meeting,
Where the worship never ends !

33.

C. M.

Downs.Closing Hymn. — E. BRADFORD.

- 1 O, KEEPER of thine Israel !
Our eyes are turned to thee ;
Go with us as we hence depart,
And thou our Guardian be.
- 2 O may thy precepts guide our feet
Along the world's rough way ;
That we go not in paths of sin,
And from the Shepherd stray.
- 3 In all life's duties may we heed
The monitor within ;
And may thy mild, but searching glance
Reprove us when we sin.
- 4 Thus shall we honor thee, our God,
Where'er we rest or roam,
And do on earth thy holy will
Till thou shalt call us home.

As the use of single verses in social meetings is of frequent occurrence, and is deemed a pleasant exercise, the following have been introduced for that purpose.

34. 10s. & 12s.

ESCAPE for thy life ! O, look not behind !
 In Jesus alone a refuge thou 'lt find ;
 Let thy footsteps not linger till Christ thou shalt gain ;
 Escape to the mountain, stay not on the plain !

35. C. M.

SINNERS, this solemn truth regard ;
 Hear, all ye sons of men ;
 For Christ, the Saviour, hath declared,
 “ Ye must be born again.”

36. 11s.

DELAY not, delay not ; O sinner, draw near ;
 The waters of life are now flowing for thee ;
 No price is demanded, the Saviour is here,
 Salvation is purchased, salvation is free !

37. 8s. & 6s.

- 1 JESUS, dear name, how sweet the sound,
 Replete with balm for every wound ;
 His word declares his grace is free,—
 Come, needy sinner, come and see ;
 Come, guilty sinner, come and see ;—
 Will you come ? Will you come ?
- 2 He left the shining courts on high,
 Came to our world to bleed and die ;
 Jesus, the Lord, hung on the tree,—
 Come, helpless sinner, come and see ;
 Come, guilty sinner, come and see ;—
 Will you come ? Will you come ?

38. L. M.

LORD, I am thine, entirely thine,
 Purchased and saved by blood divine ;
 With full consent thine would I be,
 And own thy sov'reign right in me.

39. C. M.

A GUILTY, helpless sinner, Lord,
 Into thine arms I fall ;
 Be thou my strength and righteousness,
 My Saviour and my all.

40. 8s. & 7s.

HARK ! the Saviour now is pleading
 At the sinner's bolted heart,
 Now in heaven he 's interceding,
 Kindly taking sinners' part.

Sinner, can you slight the Saviour ?
 Can your heart resist his charms ?
 Once he died, from sin to save you,
 Now he calls you to his arms.

41. C. M.

O MAY I never turn aside,
 Nor from the Saviour flee !
 Let nothing here my heart divide ;
 I give it all to thee.

42. C. M.

O LORD, our languid souls inspire !
 For here we trust thou art ;
 Send down a coal of heavenly fire
 To warm each waiting heart.

43. L. M.

- 1 AT anchor laid, remote from home,
Toiling, I cry, " Sweet spirit, come !
Celestial breeze, no longer stay,
But swell my sail, and speed my way.
- 2 " Fain would I mount, fain would I glow,
And loose my cable from below ;
But I can only spread my sail ;
Thou, thou must breathe th' auspicious gale !"

44. L. M.

BLEST are the souls that thirst for grace,
Hunger and long for righteousness ;
They shall be well supplied, and fed,
With living streams and living bread.

45. C. M.

O SINNERS, now to Christ draw near,
Invited by his word !
The chief of sinners need not fear ;
Behold the Lamb of God !

46. L. M.

LIFE is the time to serve the Lord,
The time to insure the great reward ;
And while the lamp holds out to burn
The vilest sinner may return.

47. C. M.

OH for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame ;
A purer light to mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb !

48.

C. M.

COME, let us lift our joyful eyes
 To heavenly courts above,
 And smile to see our Father there
 Upon a throne of love.

49.

L. M.

WE 'VE no abiding city here ;
 We seek a land beyond our sight ;
 Zion its name—the Lord is there ;
 It shines with everlasting light.

50.

L. M.

- 1 SINNERS, exposed to dreadful woe,
 Arise, and to the Saviour go ;
 Your guilt confess, his favor seek,
 And wait to hear what God will speak.
- 2 To him approach with fervent prayer,
 And if you perish, perish there ;
 Resolved at Jesus' feet to lie,
 Suing for mercy till you die.

51.

C. M.

RETURN, O wanderer!—now return ;
 Thy Saviour bids thee live ;
 Go to his feet, and grateful learn
 How freely he 'll forgive.

52.

7s.

COME, my soul, thy suit prepare,
 Jesus loves to answer prayer ;
 He himself has bid thee pray ;
 Rise and ask without delay.

FAMILY WORSHIP.

53.

C. M.

SINNERS, behold the Lamb of God,
Who takes away our guilt!
Look to the precious, priceless blood,

A Morning Prayer. — EPIS. COLL.

- 1 Now the shades of night are gone;
Now is passed the early dawn:
Lord, we would be thine to-day:
Drive the shades of sin away.
- 2 Make our souls as noonday clear;
Banish every doubt and fear:
In thy vineyard, Lord, to-day,
We would labor, we would pray.
- 3 When our work of life is past,
O, receive us all at last!
Labor then will all be o'er;
Sin's dark night will be no more.

A Hymn for Morning or Evening.

- 1 My God, how endless is thy love !
Thy gifts are every evening new ;
And morning mercies from above
Gently distil like early dew.
- 2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great Guardian of my sleeping hours ;
Thy sovereign word restores the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.
- 3 I yield my powers to thy command,
To thee I consecrate my days ;
Perpetual blessings from thine hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

Evening Song. — COLVER.

- 1 ANOTHER day has fled,
Its record is on high ;
When God shall raise the slumbering dead,
That page shall meet our eye.
- 2 The curtains of the night,
With starry folds outspread,
Our evening sacrifice invite,
To him who guards our bed.
- 3 Accept our humble prayer,
Our songs of praise indite,
And grant us now thy guardian care,
Till morning brings the light.
- 4 And thus, through all our days,
Let needful grace be given,
And fit us for thy better praise,
When we shall rest in heaven.

The Place of Prayer. — COLVER.

- 1 I LOVE the closet's calm retreat,—
The hallowed place of secret prayer,
O'ershadowed by the mercy seat,—
I love the place, for God is there.
- 2 Nor less, when families surround
The altar of domestic prayer,
Where piety and love abound,—
I love the place, for God is there.
- 3 I love the place where Christians meet,
To worship God, and offer prayer;
Where heart meets heart in union sweet,—
I love the place, for God is there.
- 4 I love, and long, in heaven to dwell,
Where gathered all the sons of prayer,
In songs, his matchless grace to tell,—
I love the place, for God is there.

God's Goodness acknowledged. — WATTS.

- 1 ONCE more. my soul, the rising day
Salutes thy waking eyes;
Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
To Him who rules the skies.
- 2 Night unto night his name repeats;
The day renews the sound,
Wide as the heavens on which he sits,
To turn the seasons round.
- 3 'T is he supports my mortal frame;
My tongue shall speak his praise;
My sins would rouse his wrath to flame,
And yet his wrath delays.

4 How many wretched souls have fled
 Since the last setting sun !
 And yet thou length'nest out my thread,
 And yet my moments run.

5 Great God, let all my hours be thine,
 While I enjoy the light ;
 Then shall my sun in smiles decline,
 And bring a peaceful night.

Grateful Acknowledgment. — SAC. OFFERING.

1 AGAIN, from calm and sweet repose,
 I rise to hail the dawn ;
 Again my waking eyes unclose,
 To view the smiling morn.

2 Great God of love, thy praise I'll sing ;
 For thou hast safely kept
 My soul beneath thy guardian wing,
 And watched me while I slept.

3 Glory to thee, eternal Lord !
 O, teach my heart to pray,
 And thy blest Spirit's help afford,
 To guide me through the day !

4 Let every thought and word accord
 With thy most holy will ;
 Each deed the precepts of thy word
 With pious aim fulfil.

5 From danger, sin, and every ill,

Power of God's Word. — WATTS.

- 1 BEHOLD, the morning sun
Begins his glorious way :
His beams through all the nations run,
And life and light convey.
- 2 But where the gospel comes,
It spreads diviner light ;
It calls dead sinners from their tombs,
And gives the blind their sight.
- 3 How perfect is thy word,
And all thy judgments just !
Forever sure thy promise, Lord,
And we securely trust.
- 4 My gracious God, how plain
Are thy directions given !
O, may I never read in vain,
But find the path to heaven !

A Morning Invocation. — KENN.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run ;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
For they with pure devotion sing
High praises to th' eternal King.
- 3 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept :
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless life partake.

Evening Hymn. — Y. C.

1 THE day is past and gone,
The evening shades appear ;
O may we all remember well,
The night of death draws near !

2 We lay our garments by,
Upon our beds to rest ;
So death will soon disrobe us all
Of what is here possessed.

3 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears ;
May angels guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.

4 And if we early rise,
And view th' unwearied sun,
May we set out to win the prize,
And after glory run.

5 And when our days are past,
And we from time remove,
O may we in thy bosom rest,
The bosom of thy love !

The bounties of my God?
This feeble spirit pants beneath
The pleasing, painful load.
- 2 Serene I laid me down,

But whence these favors, Lord, to me,
All worthless as I am?

Devote, O Lord, to thee;
And in thy service I would spend
A long eternity.

Evening Reflections. — WATTS.

- 1 THUS far the Lord has led me on;
Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.
- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home;
But he forgives my follies past;
He gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.
- 4 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait thy voice to break my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

 His works of grace, how bright they shine !
 How deep his counsels, how divine !
- 4 And I shall share a glorious part,
 When grace hath well refined my heart,
 And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
 Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

Come, O sinner, while you may,

Or bear eternal woe?

Awake! awake! — HIGINBOTHAM.

- 1 AWAKE, awake, each drowsy soul!
Awake, and view the setting sun!
See how the shades of death advance,
Ere half the task of life is done.
- 2 Soon will he close all drowsy eyes,
Nor shall we hear these warnings more;
Soon will the mighty Judge approach;
E'en now he stands before the door.
- 3 To-day, attend his gracious voice!
This is the summons which he sends —
“Awake! for on this passing hour
Thy long eternity depends.”

The Soul. — MONTGOMERY.

- 1 WHAT is the thing of greatest price,
The whole creation round?
That, which was lost in paradise,
That, which in Christ is found.
- 2 The soul of man, — Jehovah's breath!
That keeps two worlds at strife;
Hell moves beneath to work its death,
Heaven stoops to give it life.
- 3 God to reclaim it did not spare
His well-beloved Son;
Jesus, to save it, deigned to bear
The sins of all in one.
- 4 And is this treasure borne below,
In earthly vessels frail?
Teach us, O God, its worth to know,
Lest we its loss bewail.

The harvest past. — E. F. E.

- 1 Lo! Jesus the Saviour in mercy draws near,
Salvation he brings, O repent and believe;
The voice of his mercy the doubting shall hear,
And sinners redemption with gladness receive.
- 2 The day-star of promise illumines the sky,
And souls long benighted now welcome the dawn;
Improve the glad season, or soon you may cry —
“The harvest is past, and the summer is gone!”
- 3 The Spirit is striving with sinners to-day,
He graciously knocks at the door of your heart,
He comes the compassion of God to display,
Your sins to remove and his love to impart.
- 4 O! welcome the Spirit, and grieve him no more,
Nor wait till his offers of life are withdrawn;
Lest then you may cry, as your doom you deplore,
“The harvest is past, and the summer is gone!”

Exhortation to Repentance.

- 1 REPENT! the voice celestial cries,
No longer dare delay:
The soul that scorns the mandate dies,
And meets a fiery day.
- 2 No more the sovereign eye of God
O'erlooks the crimes of men;
His heralds now are sent abroad
To warn the world of sin.
- 3 O sinners, in his presence bow,
And all your guilt confess!
Accept the offered Saviour now,
Nor trifle with his grace.

Wilmot.

- 1 TELL me, wanderer, wildly roving
From the path that leads to peace,
Pleasure's false enchantment loving,
When will thy delusion cease ?
- 2 Once, like thee, by joys surrounded,
I could kneel at pleasure's shrine ;
Then my brightest hopes were bounded
By delights as false as thine.
- 3 But those visions scarce had blest me
When that fleeting day was o'er ;
Then the world, that had caressed me,
Charmed me with its smiles no more.
- 4 Such is pleasure's transient story ;
Lasting happiness is known
Only in the path to glory —
In the Saviour's love alone.

Sinner, prepare to meet God. — NEWTON.

- 1 SINNER, art thou still secure ?
Will thou still refuse to pray ?
Can thy heart or hand endure
In the Lord's avenging day ?
- 2 See, his mighty arm is bared,
Awful terrors clothe his brow !
For his judgment stand prepared —
Thou must either break or bow.
- 3 Who his advent may abide ?
You, who glory in your shame,
Will you find a place to hide,
When the world is wrapped in flame ?

- 4 Let us now our day improve,
 Listen to the gospel voice ;
 Seek the things that are above ;
 Scorn the world's pretended joys.

Expostulation. — URWICK'S COLL.

- 1 SINNER, what hast thou to show
 Like the joys believers know ?
 Is thy path of fading flowers
 Half so bright, so sweet as ours ?
- 2 Doth a skilful, healing friend
 On thy daily path attend,
 And where thorns and stings abound,
 Shed a balm on every wound ?
- 3 When the tempest rolls on high,
 Hast thou still a refuge nigh ?
 Can, O can thy dying breath
 Summon one more strong than death ?
- 4 Canst thou in that awful day
 Fearless tread the gloomy way,
 Plead a glorious ransom given,
 Burst from earth and soar to heaven ?

2 Weep for the lost ! The prophets wept
O'er Israel's gloomy fate,
When Vengeance had unsheathed her sword ;
Repentance came too late.

3 Weep for the lost ! Apostles wept,
That men should error choose ;
That dying men should Christ reject,

4 Weep for the lost ! The lost will weep,
In that long night of woe,

Did he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?
- 2 Was it for crimes that I have done,
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown,

For man the creature's sin.

 Here, on my heart, the burden lies,
 And past offences pain mine eyes.

Is there no Hope? — MILLER.

- 1 Is there no hope ? O, sinner, pause !
 Turn not away from heaven thy face ;
 Despise no more God's holy laws,
 Resist not his inviting grace.
- 2 Is there no hope ? That word recall ;
 Thy steps retrace, nor dare delay ;
 Lest, ere thou turn, God's anger fall,
 And hope forever flee away.
- 3 Is there no hope ? Yes, sinner, yes —
 Repent, and to the Saviour fly :
 Will he be deaf to your distress,
 Who listens when the ravens cry ?

Sinners Entreated. — J. WESLEY.

- 1 SINNERS, turn ; why will ye die ?
God, your Maker, asks you why ;
God, who did your being give,
Made you with himself to live.
- 2 Sinners, turn ; why will ye die ?
God, your Saviour, asks you why ;
Will ye not in him believe,
Who hath died that ye might live ?
- 3 Sinners, turn ; why will ye die ?
God, the Spirit, asks you why ?
He who all your lives hath strove,
Wooded you to embrace his love.
- 4 Will ye not his grace receive ?
Will ye still refuse to live ?
O ! ye dying sinners, why,
Why will ye forever die ?

Bread of Life. — John vi. 35, 48, 51. — HOSKIN'S.

- 1 BEHOLD the gift of God !
Sinners, adore his name,
Who shed for us his precious blood,
Who bore our curse and shame.
- 2 Behold the living bread !
Which Jesus came to give,
By dying in the sinner's stead,
That he might ever live.

Who gives his flesh to eat ;
Never did angels taste above
Provision half so sweet.

The Teaching of Jesus. — BOWRING.

- 1 How sweetly flowed the gospel's sound
 From lips of gentleness and grace,
 When list'ning thousands gathered round,
 And joy and rev'rence filled the place !
- 2 From heaven he came — of heaven he spoke —
 To heaven he led his followers' way ;
 Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
 Unveiling an immortal day.

 Come, all ye weary ones, and rest ;"
 Yes, sacred Teacher — we will come —
 Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.

Sufficiency of the Atonement.

- 1 THERE is a fountain filled with blood,
 Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
 And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
 Lose all their guilty stains.
- 2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
 That fountain, in his day:
 O may I there, though vile as he,
 Wash all my sins away.
- 3 Thou dying Lamb, thy precious blood
 Shall never lose its power,
 Till all the ransomed church of God
 Are saved, to sin no more.
- 4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
 Thy flowing wounds supply,
 Redeeming love has been my theme,
 And shall be, till I die.
- 5 And when this feeble, faltering tongue
 Lies silent in the grave,
 Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
 I'll sing thy power to save.

Behold the Lamb of God. — HOSKINS.

 Look to the precious, priceless blood,

 " Behold the Lamb of God."

 That we may, with thy saints on high,
 " Behold the Lamb of God."

Knocking at the Door. — DODDRIDGE.

 Has waited long — is waiting still ;
 You treat no other friend so ill.

 O matchless kindness ! — and he shows
 This matchless kindness to his foes.

3 Rise — touched with gratitude divine,
 Turn out his enemy and thine, —
 That soul-destroying monster, sin, —
 And let the heavenly stranger in.

4 Admit him, ere his anger burn, —

 Admit him, — or the hour's at hand,
 You'll at his door rejected stand

The Spirit and the Bride say come. — Rev. xxii. 17. — COLVER.

- 1 MOURNING sinner, come to Jesus,
 Now the Spirit whispers, "Come;"
 True your many sins are grievous,
 And deserve a fearful doom.
 Still the Spirit
 Bids you to the Saviour come.
- 2 Mourning sinner, filled with anguish,
 Hear the Bride of Christ say, "Come;"
 Dry your tears and cease to languish,
 There is hope beyond the tomb.
 Come to Jesus,
 At the gospel feast there's room.
- 3 Come, poor sinner, come to Jesus!
 All who hear, repeat the cry;
 Come to him who died to save us;
 From the swift avenger fly.
 Come to Jesus,
 Heaven and earth invite thee nigh.
- 4 Ho! ye weary souls and thirsty,
 Here are streams that never dry,
 Gushing streams of living waters,—
 Without money, come and buy.
 Come to Jesus,
 Freely drink and never die.

And make this last resolve:—
- 2 "I'll go to Jesus though my sin
Hath like a mountain rose;
I know his courts; I'll enter in,
Whatever may oppose.
- 3 "I'll prostrate lie before his throne,
And there my guilt confess;
I'll tell him I'm a wretch undone,
Without his sovereign grace.

INVITING.

4 "I'll to the gracious King approach,
Whose sceptre pardon gives ;
Perhaps he may command my touch,
And then the suppliant lives.

5 "Perhaps he will admit my plea,
Perhaps will hear my prayer ;

And perish only there.

I must forever die."

Religion, the Path to Heaven. — HOWE'S HYMNS.

- 1 THERE is a path that leads to God,
All others go astray ;
Narrow, but pleasant, is the road,
And Christians love the way.
- 2 It leads straight through this world of sin,
And dangers must be past ;
But those who boldly walk therein,

 To serve the living God.
- 2 Body and spirit, time and health,
 And influence are the Lord's;
 Honor, or fame, or friends, or wealth,
 All that my lot affords.
- 3 I consecrate my all to thee,
 Here at thy mercy-seat;
 Poor as the offering may be,
 I lay it at thy feet.

Hour of Conversion. — N. COLVER.

- 1 I LOVE to think of that blest hour
 When Jesus made me his ;
 Subdued me by his Spirit's power,
 And hushed my soul to peace.
- 2 He gave me eyes my Lord to see,
 As one that had been slain ;
 And whispered, " This I bore for thee,
 For thee endured the pain."
- 3 He gave me ears his voice to hear,
 And then for me he cried,
 " Father, this mourning sinner spare ;"
 And showed his wounded side.
- 4 And then he looked on me and smiled,
 And spake my sins " forgiven ;"
 He owned me his adopted child,
 And sealed me heir of heaven.
- 5 'T was then I learned his saving power,
 And tuned my heart to praise ;
 The fragrance of that hallowed hour
 Shall sweeten all my days.

Self-dedication. — BOURNE'S COLL.

- 1 O SAVIOUR, welcome to my heart ;
 Possess thy humble throne ;
 Bid every rival hence depart,
 And claim me for thy own.
- 2 The world and Satan I forsake ;
 To thee I all resign ;
 My longing heart, O Saviour, take,
 And fill with love divine.

- 3 O, may I never turn aside,
 Nor from thy bosom flee ;
 Let nothing here my heart divide ;
 I give it all to thee.

The New Birth. — John iii. — ОСКУМ.

- 1 AWAKED by Sinai's awful sound,
 My soul in bonds of guilt I found,
 And knew not where to go ;
 Eternal truth did loud proclaim,
 The sinner must be born again,
 Or sink to endless woe.
- 2 When to the law I trembling fled,
 It poured its curses on my head —
 I no relief could find ;
 This fearful truth increased my pain,
 The sinner must be born again,
 And whelmed my tortured mind.
- 3 The saints I heard with rapture tell
 How Jesus conquered death and hell,
 And broke the fowler's snare :
 Yet when I found this truth remain,
 The sinner must be born again,
 I sunk in deep despair.
- 4 But while I thus in anguish lay,
 The gracious Saviour passed this way,
 And filled my heart with love ;
 The sinner, by his justice slain,
 Now by his grace is born again,
 And hopes for bliss above.

Conversion. — WATTS.

- 1 WHEN God revealed his gracious name,
And changed my mournful state,
My rapture seemed a pleasing dream,
The grace appeared so great.
- 2 The world beheld the glorious change,
And did thy hand confess;
My tongue broke out in unknown strains,
And sung surprising grace.
- 3 Great is the work! — my neighbors cried,
And owned the power divine;
Great is the work! — my heart replied,
And be the glory thine.
- 4 The Lord can clear the darkest skies,
Can give us day for night;
Make drops of sacred sorrow rise
To rivers of delight.

The new Convert. — John xiii. 17. — SELECT HYMNS.

- 1 O how happy are they
Who their Saviour obey,
And have laid up their treasures above! —
Tongue can never express
The sweet comfort and peace
Of a soul in its earliest love.
- 2 That sweet comfort was mine
When the favor divine
I had found in the blood of the Lamb.
When at first I believed,
What true joy I received,
What a heaven in Jesus' dear name!

3 'T was a heaven below
 My Redeemer to know ;
 And the angels could do nothing more
 Than to fall at his feet,
 And the story repeat,
 And the lover of sinners adore.

4 Jesus, all the day long,
 Was my joy and my song :
 O, that all his salvation might see !
 He hath loved me, I cried,
 He hath suffered and died
 To redeem such a rebel as me !

Changed by Grace. — HOWE'S HYMNS.

1 O, WHY should sinful men below,
 To wild delusions given,
 Beneath their feet the gospel throw,
 And thus their hopes of peace forego,
 And all the joys of heaven ?

2 Too long, indeed, with love divine,
 My soul, like theirs, had striven ;
 Now, changed by grace, this heart of mine
 Can all the charms of earth resign,
 And seek its rest in heaven.

3 No more, with mercy's self at war,
 On error's waves I'm driven ;
 From sin's dark shoals I steer me far,
 My Saviour's smile my polar star,
 My home the port of heaven.

Joy in Heaven. — NEEDHAM.

- 1 OH, how divine, how sweet the joy,
When but one sinner turns,
And with an humble, broken heart,
His sins and errors mourns!
- 2 Pleased with the news, the saints below
In songs their tongues employ;
Beyond the skies the tidings go,
And heaven is filled with joy.
- 3 Well pleased, the Father sees and hears
The conscious sinner's moan;
Jesus receives him in his arms,
And claims him for his own.
- 4 Nor angels can their joys contain,
But kindle with new fire:
"The sinner lost is found," they sing,
And strike the sounding lyre.

Joy in Heaven for a repenting Sinner. — WATTS.

- 1 WHO can describe the joys that rise,
Through all the courts of Paradise,
To see a penitent return, —
To see an heir of glory born?
- 2 With joy the Father does approve
The fruit of his eternal love;
The Son with joy looks down, and sees
The purchase of his agonies.
- 3 The Spirit takes delight to view
The holy soul he formed anew;
And saints and angels join to sing
The growing empire of their King.

Convert's Deadness to the World. — NEWTON.

- 1 LET worldly minds the world pursue,
It has no charms for me;
Once I admired its trifles too,
But grace has set me free.
- 2 As by the light of opening day
The stars are all concealed;
So earthly pleasures fade away
When Jesus is revealed.
- 3 Now, Lord, I would be thine alone,
And wholly live to thee;
But may I hope that thou wilt own
A worthless worm like me?
- 4 Yes, though of sinners I'm the worst,
I cannot doubt thy will;
For, if thou hadst not loved me first,
I had refused thee still.

The Penitent surrendering. — NEWTON.

- 1 LORD, thou hast won — at length I yield;
My heart, by mighty grace compelled,
Surrenders all to thee:
Against thy terrors long I strove,
But who can stand against thy love? —
Love conquers even me.
- 2 If thou hadst bid thy thunders roll,
And lightnings flash to awe my soul,
I still had stubborn been:
But mercy has my heart subdued,
A bleeding Saviour I have viewed,
And now I hate my sin.

- 3 Now, Lord, I would be thine alone ;
 Come, take possession of thine own,
 For thou hast set me free ;
 Released from Satan's hard command,
 See all my powers in waiting stand,
 To be employed by thee.

 The home I seek is far away ;
 Where Christ is not, I cannot be —
 This land is not the land for me.
 This world is not my home,
 This world is not my home ;
 This world is all a wilderness,
 This world is not my home.
- 2 I've found the winding path of sin
 A rugged path to travel in ;
 Beyond the chilly waves I see
 The land my Saviour bought for me.
 This world, &c.

 The angels sing, and so will I ;
 Where seraphs bow and bend the knee,
 O, that's the land — the land for me.

Prayer for a Revival. — NEWTON.

- 1 SAVIOUR, visit thy plantation ;
 Grant us, Lord, a gracious rain !
 All will come to desolation
 Unless thou return again.
 Lord, revive us ;
 All our help must come from thee.
- 2 Keep no longer at a distance ;
 Shine upon us from on high,
 Lest, for want of thine assistance,
 Every plant should droop and die.
 Lord, revive us ;
 All our help must come from thee.
- 3 Let our mutual love be fervent ;
 Make us prevalent in prayers ;
 Let each one esteemed thy servant,
 Shun the world's bewitching snares.
 Lord, revive us ;
 All our help must come from thee.

 Turn the stony heart to flesh ;
 And begin from this good hour
 To revive thy work afresh.

Debtor to Grace.—ROBINSON.

- 1 COME, thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace ;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise :
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above ;
Praise the mount — O fix me on it,
Mount of God's unchanging love.
- 2 Here I raise my Ebenezer ;
Hither by thy help I'm come ;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home :
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God ;
He, to save my soul from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.
- 3 O, to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be !
Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it ;
Prone to leave the God I love ;
Here's my heart ; Lord, take and seal it ;
Seal it from thy courts above.

Increase of Faith desired. — STEELE.

- 1 ALAS! what hourly dangers rise!
What snares beset my way!
To heaven O let me lift my eyes,
And hourly watch and pray.
- 2 O gracious God, in whom I live,
My feeble efforts aid;
Help me to watch, and pray, and strive,

And bear my fainting spirit up,
Or soon my strength will fail.
- 4 O keep me in thy heavenly way,
And bid the tempter flee;
And let me never, never stray
From happiness and thee.

Faith in Christ our Sacrifice.—WATTS.

- 1 Nor all the blood of beasts,
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away the stain.
- 2 But Christ, the heavenly Lamb,
Takes all our sins away;
A sacrifice of nobler name,
And richer blood than they.
- 3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of thine, —
While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.
- 4 My soul looks back to see
The burdens thou didst bear,
When hanging on the cursed tree;
And hopes her guilt was there.
- 5 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing his bleeding love.

Faith I need.—COLLYER.

- 1 FAITH I need; O Lord, bestow it;
Give my laboring mind relief;
Oft, alas! I doubt — I know it —
Help, O help my unbelief!
- 2 Dearest Saviour, by thy merit,
May I gain a future crown;
Guide, O guide me by thy Spirit,
Till these storms are overblown.

Faith, the Evidence of Things not seen. — WATTS.

- 1 FAITH is the brightest evidence
Of things beyond our sight ;
It pierces through the veil of sense,
And dwells in heavenly light.
- 2 It sets time past in present view,
Brings distant prospects home,
Of things a thousand years ago,
Or thousand years to come.
- 3 By faith we know the world was made
By God's almighty word ;
We know the heavens and earth shall fade,
And be again restored.
- 4 Abraham obeyed the Lord's command,
From his own country driven ;
By faith he sought a promised land,
But found his rest in heaven.
- 5 Thus through life's pilgrimage we stray,
The promise in our eye ;
By faith we walk the narrow way,
That leads to joy on high.

Preciousness of Faith. — Eph. ii. 8. — BEDDOME.

- 1 FAITH — 't is a precious grace,
Where'er it is bestowed ;
It boasts of a celestial birth,
And is the gift of God.
- 2 Jesus it owns as King
And all-atoning Priest ;
It claims no merit of its own,
But looks for all in Christ.

- 3 To him it leads the soul,
 When filled with deep distress ;
 Flies to the fountain of his blood,
 And trusts his righteousness.
- 4 Since 't is thy work alone,
 And that divinely free ;
 Lord, send the Spirit of thy Son,
 To work this faith in me.

Prayer for strong Faith. — BATH COLL.

- 1 O FOR a faith that will not shrink,
 Though pressed by every foe ;
 That will not tremble on the brink
 Of any earthly woe ; —
- 2 A faith that shines more bright and clear
 When tempests rage without ;
 That when in danger knows no fear,
 In darkness feels no doubt ; —
- 3 That bears, unmoved, the world's dread frown,
 Nor heeds its scornful smile ;
 That seas of trouble cannot drown,
 Nor Satan's arts beguile ; —
- 4 A faith that keeps the narrow way
 Till life's last hour is fled,
 And with a pure and heavenly ray
 Lights up a dying bed.
- 5 Lord, give us such a faith as this,
 And then, whate'er may come,
 We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed bliss
 Of an eternal home.

Faith the Gift of God. — PERCY CHAPEL COLL.

- 1 FATHER, I stretch my hands to thee ;
No other help I know ;
If thou withdraw thyself from me,
Ah, whither shall I go ?
- 2 Author of faith, to thee I lift
My weary, longing eyes ;
O, may I now receive that gift !
My soul, without it, dies.

Faith looking to Christ. — R. PALMER.

- 1 My faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary ;
Saviour divine ;
Now hear me while I pray ;
Take all my guilt away ;
O let me from this day
Be wholly thine.
- 2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire ;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to thee,
Pure, warm, and changeless be —
A living fire.
- 3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide ;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

4 When ends life's transient dream,
 When death's cold sullen stream
 Shall o'er me roll ;
 Blest Saviour, then in love,
 Fear and distrust remove ;
 O bear me safe above —
 A ransomed soul.

Excellence of Faith. — CH. WATCHMAN.

- 1 FAITH is the Christian's prop,
 Whereon his sorrows lean ;
 It is the substance of his hope,
 His proof of things unseen ;
 It is the anchor of his soul
 When tempests rage and billows roll.
- 2 Faith is the polar star
 That guides the Christian's way,
 Directs his wanderings from afar
 To realms of endless day ;
 It points the course where'er he roam,
 And safely leads the pilgrim home.
- 3 Faith is the rainbow's form
 Hung on the brow of heaven,
 The glory of the passing storm,
 The pledge of mercy given ;
 It is the bright, triumphal arch,
 Through which the saints to glory march.
- 4 The faith that works by love,
 And purifies the heart,
 A foretaste of the joys above
 To mortals can impart ;
 It bears us through this earthly strife,
 And triumphs in immortal life.

HOPE.

HOPE.

Newton.

Hoping, yet trembling. — STEWARD.

- 1 MY soul would fain indulge a hope
To reach the heavenly shore,
And when I drop this dying flesh
That I shall sin no more.
- 2 I hope to hear, and join, the song
That saints and angels raise,
And, while eternal ages roll,
To sing eternal praise.
- 3 But O this dreadful heart of sin !
It may deceive me still,
And, while I look for joys above,
May plunge me down to hell.
- 4 Come, then, O blessed Jesus, come !
To me thy Spirit give ;
Shine through a dark, benighted soul,
And bid a sinner live.

The precious Hope.

- 1 THERE is a hope, a precious hope,
The world can never give,
And when all other hopes are fled,
This blessed hope shall live.
- 2 This world is not its native place ;
'T is not by mortals given ;
It enters that within the veil —
'T is anchored fast in heaven.

LOVE.

- 3 'T is built upon the Saviour's blood,
And on his dying love ;
It points the lonely wanderer here
Up to a home above.
- 4 It whispers in the sinner's ear
Of crimes and sins forgiven,
And promises his weary soul
A peace and rest in heaven.
- 5 Nor time, nor space, nor life, nor death,
Shall e'er this hope remove ;
Eternity's unceasing years
Its endless life shall prove.

Holy Love. — WATTS.

- 1 HAPPY the heart where graces reign,
Where love inspires the breast ;
Love is the brightest of the train,
And strengthens all the rest.
- 2 This is the grace that lives and sings,
When faith and hope shall cease ;
'T is this shall strike our joyful strings
In the sweet realms of bliss.
- 3 Before we quite forsake our clay,
Or leave this dark abode,
The wings of love bear us away
To see our smiling God.

Influence of Love. — HYMNS OF ZION.

- 1 LOVE is the strongest tie
That can our hearts unite ;
Love makes our service liberty,
Our every burden light.
- 2 We run in God's commands,
When love directs the way ;
With willing hearts, and active hands,
Our Maker's will obey.
- 3 Love softens all our toil,
And makes our bondage blest ;
The gloomy desert wears a smile
When love inspires the breast.
- 4 When we ascend the skies,
And see the Saviour's face,
Love will to full perfection rise,
And reign through all the place.

Penitential Love. — REED.

- 1 O THAT I could like Mary dwell
Forever at my Saviour's feet,
And view the form I love so well,
And all his tender words repeat !
- 2 The world shut out from all my soul,
And heaven brought in with all its bliss ;
O, is there aught from pole to pole,
One moment to compare with this ?
- 3 This is the hidden life I prize,
A life of penitential love,
When most my follies I despise,
And raise the highest thoughts above.

Supreme Love to Christ. — STEELE.

- 1 YE earthly vanities, depart;
Forever hence remove:
Jesus alone deserves my heart,
And every thought of love.
- 2 His heart, where love and pity dwelt
In all their softest forms,
Sustained the heavy load of guilt
For lost, rebellious worms.
- 3 Can I my bleeding Saviour view,
And yet ungrateful prove?
And pierce his wounded heart anew,
And grieve his injured love?
- 4 Dear Lord, forbid! — O bind this heart —
This roving heart of mine
So firm, that it may ne'er depart,
In chains of love divine.

Love to Christ.

- 1 OF all the joys we mortals know,
Jesus, thy love exceeds the rest;
Love, the best blessing here below,
The highest rapture of the blest.
- 2 While we are held in thine embrace
There's not a thought attempts to rove;
Each smile that's seen upon thy face
Fixes, and charms, and fires our love.
- 3 When of thine absence we complain,
And long, and weep, and humbly pray;
There's a strange pleasure in the pain;
Those tears are sweet which mourn thy stay.

Love for Christ. — DODDRIDGE.

- 1 JESUS, I love thy charming name,
'T is music to my ear;
Fain would I sound it out so loud,
That earth and heaven might hear.
- 2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul,
My transport and my trust:
Jewels to thee are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.
- 3 All my capacious powers can wish,
In thee doth richly meet;
Nor to my eyes is light so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.
- 4 I'll speak the honors of thy name,
With my last laboring breath;
And dying, clasp thee in my arms,
The antidote of death.

My God, my Love. — WATTS.

- 1 MY God, my life, my love,
To thee, to thee I call;
I cannot live, if thou remove,
For thou art all in all.
- 2 Nor earth, nor all the sky
Can one delight afford;
No, not a drop of real joy,
Without thy presence, Lord.
- 3 Thou art the sea of love,
Where all my pleasures roll;
The circle, where my passions move,
And centre of my soul.

Love of Christ celebrated. — STEELE.

- 1 To our Redeemer's glorious name
Awake the sacred song!
O, may his love — immortal flame —
Tune every heart and tongue.
- 2 His love, what mortal thought can reach?
What mortal tongue display?
Imagination's utmost stretch,
In wonder, dies away.
- 3 Dear Lord! while we adoring pay
Our humble thanks to thee,
May every heart with rapture say, —
"The Saviour died for me!"

JOY.

The Christian's Peace. — WINCHELL.

- 1 How peaceful is the Christian's breast!
Though by distressing cares oppressed,
How bright his prospects shine!
If comforts fly, or friends decay,
Or clouds obstruct the cheering ray
Which lights him on his heavenly way,
He sees the hand divine.
- 2 He knows, in heaven there dwells a friend,
Who lives, though life and time shall end,
And nature's reign be o'er;
Whose smiles the weary soul shall share;
Whose love shall crown the pilgrim there;
Nor aught of anguish, aught of care,
Disturb his passions more.

Rising to God. — GIBBONS.

- 1 Now let our souls, on wings sublime,
Rise from the vanities of time;
Draw back the parting veil, and see
The glories of eternity.
- 2 Children of a heavenly birth,
Why should we grovel here on earth?
Why grasp at these alluring toys,
In sight of heaven's eternal joys?
- 3 To dwell with God, to feel his love,
Is the full heaven enjoyed above;
And the sweet expectation now
Is like the dawn of heaven below.

The joyful Traveller. — CENNICK.

- 1 CHILDREN of the heavenly King,
As ye journey, sweetly sing;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.
- 2 Ye are travelling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now, and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Sing, ye little flock, and blest;
You near Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seats are now prepared,
There your kingdom and reward.
- 4 Lord! submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below:
Only thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

Rejoicing in God, our Father. — HEGINBOTHAM.

- 1 COME, shout aloud the Father's grace,
And sing the Saviour's love ;
Soon shall you join the glorious theme,
In loftier strains above.
- 2 God, the eternal, mighty God,
To dearer names descends ;
Calls you his treasure and his joy,
His children and his friends.

Pronounce a name so dear ?
Not thus could heaven's sweet harmony
Delight my listening ear.

Humble Gratitude. — TAYLOR.

- 1 SINCE we, and all our treasures too,
Are his who reigns above ;
Then is there nothing we can do,
To prove our grateful love ?
- 2 A broken heart he'll not despise —
It is his chief delight ;
This is a humble sacrifice,
Well pleasing in his sight.
- 3 Though treasures brought before his throne
Would no acceptance find ;
He kindly condescends to own
A meek and lowly mind.
- 4 This is an offering we may bring,
However mean our store ;
The poorest child, the greatest king,
Can give him nothing more.

The happy Christian. — WATTS.

- 1 O HAPPY soul that lives on high,
While men lie grovelling here!
His hopes are fixed above the sky,
And faith forbids his fear.
- 2 His conscience knows no secret stings,
While grace and joy combine
To form a life whose holy springs
Are hidden and divine.
- 3 He waits in secret on his God;
His God in secret sees;
Let earth be all in arms abroad,
He dwells in heavenly peace.
- 4 His pleasures rise from things unseen,
Beyond this world of time,
Where neither eyes nor ears have been,
Nor thoughts of mortals climb.

Christian Joy. — NEWTON.

- 1 Joy is a fruit that will not grow
In nature's barren soil;
All we can boast, till Christ we know,
Is vanity and toil.
- 2 But where the Lord has planted grace,
And made his glories known,
There fruits of heavenly joy and peace
Are found, and there alone.
- 3 A bleeding Saviour seen by faith,
A sense of pardoning love,
A hope that triumphs over death,
Gives joys like those above.

- 4 These are the joys which satisfy,
 And sanctify the mind ;
 Which make the spirit mount on high,
 And leave the world behind.

Marlow.Joy in God.—STEELE.

- 1 FROM thee, my God, my joys shall rise
 In rapture-breathing sounds,
 Range o'er the limits of the skies,
 O'er heaven's eternal bounds.
- 2 There joys unseen by mortal eyes,
 Or reason's feeble ray,
 In ever blooming prospects rise,
 Unconscious of decay.
- 3 Lord, send a beam of light divine
 To guide our upward aim ;
 With one reviving touch of thine,
 Our languid hearts inflame.
- 4 O, then, on faith's sublimest wing,
 Our ardent hope shall rise
 To those bright scenes where pleasures spring
 Immortal in the skies.

Arlington.Delight in God.—DR. RYLAND.

- 1 O LORD, I would delight in thee,
 And on thy care depend ;
 To thee in every trouble flee,
 My best, my only Friend.
- 2 When all created streams are dried,
 Thy fulness is the same :
 May I with this be satisfied,
 And glory in thy name.

JOY.

3 No good in creatures can be found
But may be found in thee ;
I must have all things and abound,
While God is God to me.

4 O Lord, I cast my care on thee,
I triumph and adore ;
Henceforth my great concern shall be
To love and praise thee more.

Heavenly Joy on Earth. — WATTS.

1 COME, we that love the Lord,
And let our joys be known ;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.

2 The sorrows of the mind
Be banished from the place ;
Religion never was designed
To make our pleasures less.

3 Let those refuse to sing,
Who never knew our God ;
But children of the heavenly King
Should sound his praise abroad.

4 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets,
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.

5 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry ;
We 're marching through Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

Sun of Righteousness. — BEDDOME.

- 1 RISE, glorious Sun, supremely bright,
Diffuse thy rays abroad;
Scatter the shades of gloomy night,
And show the heavenly road.
- 2 With healing in thy wings, arise
On this dark soul of mine;
O pour thy glories from the skies,
And give me life divine.
- 3 Though painful thorns and fatal snares
Beset the path I go,
One ray of thine dispels my fears,
And guides me safely through.

Rejoicing in Jesus. — MADAN'S COLL.

- 1 Now begin the heavenly theme,
Sing aloud in Jesus' name;
Ye, who his salvation prove,
Triumph in redeeming love.
- 2 Ye, who see the Father's grace
Beaming in the Saviour's face,
As to Canaan on ye move,
Praise, and bless redeeming love.
- 3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears;
Banish all your sinful fears;
See your guilt and curse remove,
Cancelled by redeeming love.
- 4 Welcome all, by sin oppressed,
Welcome to his sacred rest!
Nothing brought him from above,
Nothing but redeeming love.

God's Presence is Light in Darkness. — WATTS.

- 1 My God! the spring of all my joys,
The life of my delights;
The glory of my brightest days,
And comfort of my nights.
- 2 In darkest shades, if thou appear,
My dawning is begun;
Thou art my soul's bright morning-star,
And thou my rising sun.
- 3 The opening heavens around me shine,
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shows his love is mine,
And whispers I am his.
- 4 My soul would leave this heavy clay,
At that transporting word,
And run with joy the shining way,
To me t my gracious Lord.
- 5 Fearless of hell and ghastly death,
I'd break through every foe;
The wings of love and arms of faith
Shall bear me conqueror through.

Prayer. — BEDDOME.

- 1 PRAYER is the breath of God in man,
• Returning whence it came ;
Love is the sacred fire within,
And prayer the rising flame.
- 2 It gives the burdened spirit ease,
And soothes the troubled breast ;
Yields comfort to the mourners here,
And to the weary rest.
- 3 When God inclines the heart to pray,
He hath an ear to hear ;
To him there 's music in a groan,
And beauty in a tear.
- 4 The humble suppliant cannot fail
To have his wants supplied,
Since He for sinners intercedes
Who once for sinners died.

The Mercy-Seat. — N. BUTLER.

- 1 How sweet, when worn with cares of life,
From all its busy scenes to flee ;
To leave a while its toil and strife,
And hold communion, Lord, with thee !
- 2 When the tired spirit seeks its rest,
'T is there a sure repose I meet ;
'T is there my wearied soul is blest,
Kneeling before thy mercy-seat.

- 3 When sin o'ercasts with clouds my sky,
 And Jesus hides his face from me,
 Then to thy mercy-seat I fly,
 And bow in humble prayer to thee.
- 4 There, all the clouds of earth depart,
 And heaven itself I almost see ;
 The Saviour whispers to my heart,
 And shows his smiling face to me.
- 5 There Jesus' voice of love I hear ;
 There glory sheds its light around ;
 Eye never looked on things so fair ;
 Ear never heard so sweet a sound.
- 6 Thou Lamb of God ! O, let me dwell
 Forever at thy sacred feet,
 To hear the voice I love so well,
 And ne'er forsake the mercy-seat.

Walking with God. — COWPER.

- 1 OH, for a closer walk with God,
 A calm and heavenly frame,
 A light to shine upon the road
 That leads me to the Lamb.
- 2 Where is the blessedness I knew,
 When first I saw the Lord ?
 Where is that soul-refreshing view
 Of Jesus and his word ?
- 3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed !
 How sweet their mem'ry still !
 But they have left an aching void
 The world can never fill.

PRAYER.

- 4 Return, O Holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest :
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.
- 5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.
- 6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame ;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

The Nature of Prayer. — MONTGOMERY.

- 1 PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Unuttered or expressed,
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.
- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear ;
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try ;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gate of death —
He enters heaven with prayer.

Prayer for Sincerity. — SOCIAL HYMNS.

- 1 LORD, when we bend before thy throne,
And our confessions pour,
O may we feel the sins we own,
And hate what we deplore.
- 2 Our contrite spirits pitying see ; —
True penitence impart ;
And let a healing ray, from thee,
Beam hope on every heart.
- 3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
O, let our wills resign ;
And not a thought our bosom share,
Which is not wholly thine.
- 4 Let faith each meek petition fill,
And waft it to the skies ;
And teach our hearts — 't is goodness still

The Mercy-Seat. — STOWELL.

- 1 FROM every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat —
'T is found beneath the mercy-seat.
- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads ;
A place, of all on earth most sweet —
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend ;
Though sundered far — by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 There, there, on eagle-wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

Design of Prayer. — ANON.

- 1 PRAYER is appointed to convey
The blessings God designs to give :
Long as they live should Christians pray ;
For 't is by earnest prayer they live.
- 2 If pain afflict, or wrongs oppress ;
If cares distract, or fears dismay ;
If guilt deject ; if sin distress ;
In every case, still watch and pray.
- 3 'T is prayer supports the soul that 's weak :
Though thought be broken, language lame,
Pray if thou canst, or canst not speak ;
But pray with faith in Jesus' name.

And search with care, there 's much at stake ;
Does no dark sign, no ground of fear,
In practice or in heart appear ?
- 2 What image does my spirit bear ?
Is Jesus formed and living there ?
Say, do his lineaments divine
In thought, and word, and action shine ?
- 3 Searcher of hearts ! O search me still ;
The secrets of my soul reveal ;
My fears remove ; let me appear
To God and my own conscience clear.
- 4 Scatter the clouds that o'er my head
Thick glooms of dubious terrors spread ;

Christ will hear Prayer. — NEWTON.

- 1 JESUS, who knows full well
The heart of every saint,
Invites us, all our griefs to tell,
To pray, and never faint.
- 2 He bows his gracious ear, —
We never plead in vain;
Then let us wait till he appear,
And pray, and pray again.
- 3 Jesus, the Lord, will hear
His chosen when they cry;
Yes, though he may a while forbear,
He'll help them from on high.
- 4 Then let us earnest cry,
And never faint in prayer;
He sees, he hears, and, from on high,
Will make our cause his care.

Holy Aspirations. — WATTS.

- 1 My God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and thee :
Amid a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.
- 2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heavenly birth ?
Why should I cleave to things below,

Fleeing to Christ. — WESLEY.

- 1 JESUS, lover of my soul,
 Let me to thy bosom fly ;
 While the billows near me roll,
 While the tempest still is high !

CHRISTIAN WARFARE.

- 2 Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide:
O receive my soul at last!
- 3 Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone;
Still support and comfort me.
- 4 All my trust on thee is stayed;
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

Watch and Pray. — HEATH.

- 1 My soul, be on thy guard;
Ten thousand foes arise;
And hosts of sin are pressing hard,
To draw thee from the skies.
- 2 O watch, and fight, and pray;
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.
- 3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor once at ease sit down;
Thy arduous work will not be done
Till thou hast gained thy crown.

Attachment to Christ. — DODDRIDGE.

- 1 DEAR Saviour, we are thine,
By everlasting bonds ;
Our names, our hearts, we would resign ;
Our souls are in thy hands.
- 2 To thee we still would cleave
With ever-growing zeal ;
If millions tempt us Christ to leave,
O let them ne'er prevail.
- 3 Thy Spirit shall unite
Our souls to thee, our Head ;
Shall form us to thy image bright,
That we thy paths may tread.
- 4 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear ?
If he in heaven has fixed his throne,
He'll fix his members there.

Encouragement to Faithfulness. — MONTGOMERY.

- 1 OUR Captain leads us on ;
He beckons from the skies ;
He reaches out a starry crown,
And bids us take the prize.
- 2 " Be faithful unto death,

And thou shalt wear this glorious wreath,
And thou shalt reign with me."

The victor's meed receive ;
They claim a kingdom in his right,
Which God will freely give.

Dedham.The Christian Soldier.—WATTS.

- 1 AM I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?
- 2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
- 3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?
- 4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord:
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

And prest by angry foes;
I lift mine eyes unto the hills
From whence salvation flows.
- 2 My help is from the Lord, who made

I look to his Almighty aid,

Shall drive destruction hence;
The Lord, thy keeper, never sleeps,
The Lord is thy defence.

War proclaimed. — STENNETT.

- 1 JESUS, my King, proclaims the war :
 "Awake! the powers of hell are near ;
 To arms! to arms!" I hear him cry ;
 "'T is yours to conquer, or to die."
- 2 Roused by the animating sound,
 I cast my eager eyes around,
 I haste to gird my armor on,
 And bid each trembling fear begone.
- 3 Hope is my helmet, faith my shield,
 The word of God the sword I wield ;
 With sacred truth my loins are girt,
 And holy zeal inspires my heart.
- 4 Thus armed, I venture on the fight,
 Resolved to put my foes to flight,
 While Jesus kindly deigns to spread
 His conquering banner o'er my head.
- 5 In him I hope, in him I trust ;
 His bleeding cross is all my boast :
 Through troops of foes he 'll lead me on
 To victory, and the victor's crown.

Foes without and within. — DODDRIDGE.

- 1 AWAKE, my drowsy soul, awake,
 And view the threatening scene ;
 Legions of foes encamp thee round,
 And treason lurks within.
- 2 'T is not this mortal life alone
 These enemies assail ;
 All thine eternal hopes are lost
 If their attempts prevail.

- 3 Now to the work of God awake ;
 Thy Master never sleeps,
 But holds thy deeds in full survey ;
 His hand the record keeps.
- 4 Tremendous thought ! how it should urge
 My soul to watch and pray ;
 The slumber from my spirit shake,
 And onward speed my way.

Soldiers, arise. — J. B. W.

- 1 SOLDIERS of the cross, arise !
 Lo ! your leader, from the skies,
 Waves before you glory's prize,
 The prize of victory.
 Seize your armor — gird it on ;
 Now the battle will be won ;
 See ! the strife will soon be done ;
 Then struggle manfully.
- 2 Jesus conquered when he fell,
 Met and vanquished earth and hell ;
 Now he leads you on, to swell
 The triumphs of his cross.
 Though all earth and hell appear,
 Who will doubt, or who can fear ?
 God our strength and shield is near ;
 We cannot lose our cause.
- 3 Onward, then, ye hosts of God !
 Jesus points the victor's rod —
 Follow where your Leader trod ;
 You soon shall see his face.
 Soon, your enemies all slain,
 Crowns of glory you shall gain ;
 Rise to join that glorious train,
 Who shout their Saviour's praise.

Hold fast the Shield.—METHODIST HYMNS.

- 1 SOLDIERS of Christ, lay hold
On faith's victorious shield;
Armed with that adamant and gold,
Be sure to win the field:
- 2 If faith surround your heart,
Satan shall be subdued,
Repelled his every fiery dart,
And quenched with Jesus' blood.
- 3 Jesus hath died for you!
What can his love withstand?
Believe, hold fast your shield, and who Shall pluck you from his hand?
- 4 To keep your armor bright,
Attend with constant care;
Still walking in your Captain's sight,
And watching unto prayer.

From his triumphant seat;
Midst all the war's tumultuous noise,
How powerful and how sweet!
- 2 "Fight on, my faithful band," he cries,
"Nor fear the mortal blow;
Who first in such a warfare dies,
Shall speediest victory know.
- 3 "I have my days of combat known,
And in the dust was laid;
But thence I mounted to my throne,
And glory crowns my head.

 My hands the crown shall give;
 And you the radiant honors wear,

 What foe have I to fear?
 In darkness and temptation,
 My light, my help, is near:
 Though hosts encamp around me,
 Firm in the fight I stand;
 What terror can confound me,
 With God at my right hand?
- 2 Place on the Lord reliance;
 My soul, with courage wait;

 His love thy joy increase;
 Mercy thy days shall lengthen;
 The Lord will give thee peace.

And gird your armor on,
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through his eternal Son ;
- 2 Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
And in his mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.
- 3 Stand then in his great might,
With all his strength endued ;
But take to arm you for the fight

Wrestle, and fight, and pray ;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,

Sowing and Reaping. — CHRISTIAN PSALMIST.

- 1 HE that goeth forth with weeping,
Bearing still the precious seed,
Never tiring, never sleeping,
All his labor shall succeed,

- 2 Then will fall the rain of heaven,
 Then the sun of mercy shine;
 Precious fruits will then be given,
 Through an influence all divine.
- 3 Sow thy seed, be never weary,
 Nor let fears thy mind employ;
 Be the prospect ne'er so dreary,
 Thou mayest reap the fruits of joy.

 Look again! the fields are whitening;
 Sure the harvest time is near.

Resignation. — MONTGOMERY.

- 1 ONE prayer I have,—all prayers in one,
When I am wholly thine ;
Thy will, my God, thy will be done,
And let that will be mine.
- 2 All-wise, Almighty, and All-good,
In thee I firmly trust ;
Thy ways, unknown or understood,
Are merciful and just.
- 3 May I remember that to thee
Whate'er I have I owe ;
And back in gratitude from me
May all thy bounties flow.
- 4 And, though thy wisdom takes away,
Shall I arraign thy will ?
No, let me bless thy name and say,
“The Lord is gracious still.”

“Thy will be done.” — PERCY CHAPEL COLL.

- 1 FATHER, I know thy ways are just,
Although to me unknown ;
O, grant me grace thy love to trust,
And cry, “Thy will be done.”
- 2 If thou shouldst hedge with thorns my path,
Should wealth and friends be gone,
Still, with a firm and lively faith,
I'll cry, “Thy will be done.”
- 3 Although thy steps I cannot trace,
Thy sovereign right I'll own ;
And, as instructed by thy grace,
I'll cry, “Thy will be done.”

THE CHURCH.

- 5 'T is sweet thus passively to lie
Before thy gracious throne,
Concerning everything to cry,
"My Father's will be done."

A Welcome to Christian Fellowship. — KELLY.

- 1 COME in, thou blessed of the Lord!
O! come in Jesus' precious name;
We welcome thee, with one accord,
And trust the Saviour does the same.
- 2 Those joys which earth cannot afford,
We'll seek in fellowship to prove;
Joined in one spirit to our Lord,
Together bound by mutual love.
- 3 And, while we pass this vale of tears,
We'll make our joys and sorrows known;
We'll share each other's hopes and fears,
And count a brother's cares our own.

After hearing Concerts. — HOWE'S HYMNS.

- 1 DEAR Saviour, we rejoice to hear
Poor sinners sweetly tell
How thou art pleased to save from sin,
From sorrow, death, and hell.
- 2 Lord, we unite to praise thy name
For grace so freely given;
Still may we keep in Zion's road,
And dwell at last in heaven.

God the Defence of his Church. — COWPER.

- 1 As birds their infant brood protect,
And spread their wings to shelter them,
Thus saith the Lord to his elect,
“So will I guard Jerusalem.”
- 2 Jehovah founded it in blood,
The blood of his incarnate Son;
There dwell the saints, once foes to God,
The sinners whom he calls his own.
- 3 There, though besieged on every side,
Yet much beloved, and guarded well;
From age to age they have defied
The utmost force of earth and hell.
- 4 Let earth repent, and hell despair;
This city has a sure defence;
Her name is called, “The Lord is there;”
And who has power to drive them thence?

Admission of Members. — BEDDOME.

- 1 BELIEVING souls, of Christ beloved,
Who have yourselves to him resigned,
Your faith and practice both approved,
A hearty welcome here shall find.
- 2 Now saved from sin and Satan's wiles,
Though by a scorning world abhorred,
Now share with us the Saviour's smiles;
Come in, ye ransomed of the Lord.
- 3 In fellowship we join our hands,
And you an invitation give;
Unite with us in sacred bands;
The pledges of our love receive.

- 4 Do thou, who art the church's Head,
 This union with thy blessing crown;
 And still, O Lord, revive the dead,
 Till thousands more thy name shall own.

On receiving new Members. — NEWTON.

- 1 KINDRED in Christ! for his dear sake,
 A hearty welcome here receive;
 May we together now partake
 The joys which only he can give.
- 2 May he, by whose kind care we meet,
 Send his good Spirit from above;
 Make our communications sweet,
 And cause our hearts to burn with love.
- 3 Forgotten be each worldly theme,
 When Christians see each other thus:
 We only wish to speak of him,
 Who lived, and died, and reigns for us.
- 4 We'll talk of all he did and said.
 And suffered for us here below;—
 The path he marked for us to tread,
 And what he's doing for us now.
- 5 Thus, as the moments pass away,
 We'll love, and wonder, and adore;
 And hasten on the glorious day
 When we shall meet to part no more.

Union Hymn.

The Union Hymn. — DR. BALDWIN.

- 1 FROM whence doth this union arise,
That conquers our hatred by love ;
That fastens our souls in such ties,
As nature and time can't remove ?
- 2 It cannot in Eden be found,
Nor yet in a paradise lost ;
It grows on Immanuel's ground,
And Jesus' rich blood it did cost.
- 3 My friends are so dear unto me,
Our hearts are united in love ;
Where Jesus is gone we shall be,
In yonder bright mansions above.
- 4 Then why so unwilling to part,
Since there we shall all meet again ?
Engraved on Immanuel's heart,
At distance we cannot remain.
- 5 With Jesus we ever shall reign,
And all his bright glories shall see ;
And sing Hallelujah, Amen !
Amen, even so let it be.

Fraternal Union. — CHRISTIAN PSALMIST.

- 1 How beautiful the sight
Of brethren who agree
In friendship to unite,
And bands of charity !
'T is like the precious ointment shed,
In sacred rite, on Aaron's head.

- 2 'T is like the dews that fill
 The cups of Hermon's flowers ;
 Or Zion's fruitful hill,
 Bright with the drops of showers ;
 Where mingling odors breathe around,
 And notes of grateful joy resound.
- 3 For there the Lord commands
 Blessings in boundless store,
 From his unsparing hands —
 E'en life for evermore :
 Thrice happy they who meet above,
 To spend eternity in love.

Attachment to the Church. — DWIGHT.

- 1 I LOVE thy kingdom, Lord,
 The house of thine abode,
 The church our blest Redeemer saved,
 With his own precious blood.
- 2 I love thy church, O God ;
 Her walls before thee stand,
 Dear as the apple of thine eye,
 And graven on thy hand.
- 3 For her my tears shall fall ;
 For her my prayers ascend ;
 To her my cares and toils be given,
 'Till toils and cares shall end.
- 4 Beyond my highest joys
 I prize her heavenly ways,
 Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
 Her hymns of love and praise.
- 5 Jesus, thou Friend divine,
 Our Saviour and our King,
 Thy hand, from every snare and foe,
 Shall great deliverance bring.

Woodland.Brotherly Love. — SWAIN.

- 1 How sweet, how heavenly, is the sight,
When those that love the Lord
In one another's peace delight,
And thus fulfil his word! —
- 2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart! —
- 3 When free from self-exalting pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love!
- 4 Love is the golden chain that binds
The happy souls above;
And he's an heir of heaven that finds
His bosom glow with love.

Dedham.Brotherly Love. — WATTS.

- 1 Lo! what an entertaining sight
Those friendly brethren prove,
Whose cheerful hearts in bands unite
Of piety and love!
- 2 Where streams of bliss, from Christ the spring,
Descend to every soul;
And heavenly peace, with balmy wing,
Shades and bedews the whole.
- 3 'T is like the oil, divinely sweet,
On Aaron's rev'rend head;
The trickling drops perfumed his feet,
And o'er his garments spread.

- 4 'T is pleasant as the morning dews,
That fall on Zion's hill,
Where God his milder glory shows,
And makes his grace distil.

Our comforts and our cares.

Our mutual burdens bear ;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

- 1 How blest the sacred tie that binds,
In union sweet, congenial minds !
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts and faith and hopes are one !
- 2 To each, the soul of each how dear !
What tender love, what holy fear !
How doth the generous flame within
Refine from earth and cleanse from sin !
- 3 Together oft they seek the place
Where God reveals his awful face ;—
At length they meet in realms above,
A heaven of joy, because of love.

The Love of God. — H. MOORE.

- 1 My God, thy boundless love I praise !
How bright on high its glories blaze !
How sweetly bloom below !
It streams from thine eternal throne ;
Through heaven its joys forever run,
And o'er the earth they flow.
- 2 'T is love that paints the purple morn,
And bids the clouds, in air upborne,
Their genial drops distil ;
In every vernal beam it glows,
And breathes in every gale that blows,
And glides in every rill.
- 3 But in the gospel it appears
In sweeter, fairer characters,
And charms the ravished breast :
There, love immortal leaves the sky,
To wipe the drooping mourner's eye,
And give the weary rest.

- 4 Then let the love that makes me blest
 With cheerful praise inspire my breast,
 And ardent gratitude ;
 And all my thoughts and passions tend
 To thee, my Father and my Friend,
 My soul's eternal good.

 Such deference to thy Father's will,
 Such love and meekness so divine,

 Then God, the Judge, shall own my name

Christ expiring upon the Cross. — STENNETT.

- 1 "'T is finished!" — so the Saviour cried,
 And meekly bowed his head and died:
 'T is finished! — yes, the race is run,
 The battle fought, the victory won.
- 2 'T is finished! — this his dying groan
 Shall sins of deepest hue atone,
 And millions be redeemed from death
 By Jesus' last, expiring breath.

3 'T is finished!—Heaven is reconciled,
 And all the powers of darkness spoiled;
 Peace, love, and happiness, again
 Return and dwell with sinful men.

4 'T is finished!—let the joyful sound

 'T is finished!—let the triumph rise,
 And swell the chorus of the skies.

1 BEHOLD th' amazing sight,
 The Saviour lifted high;
 Behold the Son of God's delight
 Expire in agony.

2 For whom, for whom, my heart,
 Were all these sorrows borne?
 Why did he feel that painful smart,
 And meet that various scorn?

3 For us he hung and bled,
 For us in torture died;
 'T was love that bowed his fainting head,
 And oped his gushing side.

4 I see, and I adore

Christ came to give Life.—John iii. 16, 17.—WATTS.

1 COME, happy souls, approach your God
 With new melodious songs;
 Come, render to Almighty grace
 The tribute of your tongues.

2 The hands of Jesus were not armed
 With an avenging rod,
 Some dread commission to perform
 From an offended God.

 To guilty, dying men,
 The Father sent his equal Son,
 To give them life again.

Salvation by Grace in Christ. — WATTS.

- 1 Now to the power of God supreme,
 Be everlasting honors given;
 He saves from hell, we bless his name—
 He calls our wand'ring feet to heaven.
- 2 Not for our duties or deserts,
 But of his own abounding grace,
 He works salvation in our hearts,
 And forms a people for his praise.
- 3 'T was his own purpose that begun
 To rescue rebels doomed to die;
 He gave us grace in Christ his Son,
 Before he spread the starry sky.
- 4 Jesus the Lord appears at last,
 And makes his Father's counsels known,
 Declares the great transactions past,
 And brings immortal blessings down.
- 5 He died; and in that dreadful night
 Did all the powers of hell destroy;
 Rising, he brought our heaven to light,
 And took possession of the joy.

 Reconciled in him to God;
 It was boundless love to bleed;
 Jesus is a Friend indeed.
- 3 O, for grace our hearts to soften!
 Teach us, Lord, at length to love;
 We, alas! forget too often
 What a Friend we have above;
 When to heaven our souls are brought,
 We will love thee as we ought.

Christ our High Priest and King. — WATTS.

- 1 Now to the Lord, that makes us know
 The wonders of his dying love,
 Be humble honors paid below,
 And strains of nobler praise above.
- 2 'T was he that cleansed our foulest sins,
 And washed us in his richest blood;
 'T is he that makes us priests and kings,
 And brings us, rebels, near to God.
- 3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest,
 To Jesus, our superior King,
 Be everlasting power confessed.
 And every tongue his glory sing.

Salvation. — WATTS.

- 1 SALVATION! O the joyful sound!
'T is pleasure to our ears;
A sovereign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.
- 2 Buried in sorrow and in sin,
At hell's dark door we lay;
But we arise, by grace divine,
To see a heavenly day.
- 3 Salvation! let the echo fly
The spacious earth around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

Physician of Souls. — STEELE.

- 1 DEEP are the wounds which sin has made;
Where shall the sinner find a cure?
In vain, alas! is nature's aid;
The work exceeds all nature's power.
- 2 And can no sovereign balm be found?
And is no kind physician nigh,
To ease the pain, and heal the wound,
Ere life and hope forever fly?
- 3 There is a great Physician near:
Look up, O fainting soul, and live;
See, in his heavenly smiles appear
Such ease as nature cannot give.
- 4 See, in the Saviour's dying blood,
Life, health, and bliss abundant flow;
'T is only this dear, sacred flood
Can ease thy pain, and heal thy woe.

Dedham.Christ the Way, the Truth, the Life. — DOANE.

- 1 JESUS, to thee, to thee alone
From sin and death we flee ;
And he who would the Father seek,
Must seek him, Lord, by thee.
- 2 Thou art the Truth—thy word alone
True wisdom can impart ;
Thou only canst for sin atone,
And purify the heart.
- 3 Thou art the Life—the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm,
And those who put their trust in thee,
Nor death nor hell shall harm.
- 4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life ;
Grant us that way to know,
That truth to keep, that life to taste,
Whose joys eternal flow.

Uxbridge.Divine Attributes illustrated in the Death of Christ. — WATTS.

- 1 SALVATION is forever nigh
The souls who fear and trust the Lord ;
And grace, descending from on high,
Fresh hopes of glory shall afford.
- 2 Mercy and truth on earth are met,
Since Christ the Lord came down from heaven ;
By his obedience, so complete,
Justice is pleased, and peace is given.
- 3 Now truth and honor shall abound,
Religion dwell on earth again,
And heavenly influence bless the ground,
In our Redeemer's gentle reign.

Remembering Christ.—NOEL.

- 1 If human kindness meets return,
And owns the grateful tie ;
If tender thoughts within us burn,
To feel a friend is nigh ;—
- 2 O! shall not warmer accents tell
The gratitude we owe
To him, who died, our fears to quell—
And save from endless woe?
- 3 While yet his anguished soul surveyed
Those pangs he would not flee,
What love his latest words displayed—
“Meet and remember me!”
- 4 Remember thee!—thy death, thy shame,
Our sinful hearts to share!—
O mem’ry! leave no other name
But his recorded there.

Praising the Lamb.—WATTS.

- 1 COME, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne ;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.
- 2 “Worthy the Lamb that died,” they cry,
“To be exalted thus ;”
“Worthy the Lamb,” our lips reply,
“For he was slain for us.”

Honor and power divine ;
And blessings, more than we can give,
Be, Lord, forever thine.

Trusting in the Blood of Christ. — STENNETT.

- 1 How shall the sons of men appear,
Great God, before thine awful bar?
How may the guilty hope to find
Acceptance with th' eternal mind?
- 2 Not vows, nor groans, nor broken cries —
Not the most costly sacrifice —
Nor infant blood, profusely spilt —
Will expiate a sinner's guilt.

When we approach, great God, to thee.

- 1 Blow ye the trumpet, blow
The gladly, solemn sound!
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound:
The year of Jubilee is come,
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 2 Exalt the Lamb of God,
The sin-atoning Lamb;
Redemption by his blood,
Through all the lands proclaim:
The year of Jubilee, &c.
- 3 Ye slaves of sin and hell,
Your liberty receive;
And safe in Jesus dwell,
And, blest in Jesus, live:
The year of Jubilee, &c.

 The news of pard'ning grace ;
 Ye happy souls, draw near ;
 Behold your Saviour's face :
 The year of Jubilee, &c.

 Has full atonement made :
 Ye weary spirits, rest ;
 Ye mourning souls, be glad :

Coronation. — DUNCAN.

- 1 ALL hail the power of Jesus' name !
 Let angels prostrate fall ;
 Bring forth the royal diadem,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 2 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
 A remnant weak and small,
 Hail him who saves you by his grace,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 3 Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
 The wormwood and the gall ;
 Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 4 Let every kindred, every tribe,
 On this terrestrial ball,
 To him all majesty ascribe,
 And crown him Lord of all.
- 5 O that with yonder sacred throng,
 We at his feet may fall !
 We'll join the everlasting song,
 And crown him Lord of all.

Praise to the Redeemer. — WATTS.

- 1 PLUNGED in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimmering day.
 - 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and — O! amazing love! —
He ran to our relief.
 - 3 Down from the shining seats above
With joyful haste he fled,
Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.
 - 4 O! for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break;
And all harmonious human tongues
The Saviour's praises speak.

Desiring the Influence of the Cross. — CHRISTIAN MELODY.

- 1 WHEN, O my Saviour, shall this heart
So feel the influence of thy grace,
That from thy cross 't will ne'er depart;
But live around that hallowed place?
- 2 The brightest scenes of earth are dim,
If Jesus be not with me there;
All worldly joys, compared with him,
Seem vain as fleeting shadows are.

- 3 O could I live beneath his smile,
 And lean upon his sacred breast,
 No fond allurement should beguile
 A heart so privileged—so blest.
- 4 Come then, my Saviour, and constrain
 This wayward soul, nor let it rove ;
 Recall me to thine arms again,
 And bind me there with cords of love.

Wonders of the Cross. — WATTS.

- 1 NATURE with open volume stands
 To spread her Maker's praise abroad ;
 And every labor of his hands
 Shows something worthy of a God.
- 2 But in the grace that rescued man
 His brightest form of glory shines ;
 Here, on the cross, 't is fairest drawn,
 In precious blood and crimson lines.
- 3 Here I behold his inmost heart,
 Where grace and justice strangely join ;
 Piercing his Son with sharpest smart,
 To make the purchased pleasures mine.
- 4 O! the sweet wonders of that cross,
 Where God, the Saviour, loved and died ;
 Her noblest life my spirit draws
 From his dear wounds and bleeding side.
- 5 I would forever speak his name,
 In sounds to mortal ears unknown ;
 With angels join to praise the Lamb,
 And worship at his Father's throne.

Wilmer.Salvation by the Cross. — WATTS.

- 1 HERE at thy cross, incarnate God!
I lay my soul beneath thy love,—
Beneath the droppings of thy blood,
Jesus!—nor shall it e'er remove.
- 2 Should worlds conspire to drive me hence,
Moveless and firm this heart should lie;
Resolved,—for that's my last defence,—
If I must perish, here to die.
- 3 But speak, my Lord! and calm my fear;
Am I not safe beneath thy shade?
Thy vengeance will not strike me here,
Nor Satan dare my soul invade.
- 4 Yes, I'm secure beneath thy blood,
And all my foes shall lose their aim;
Hosanna to my Saviour God,
And my best honors to his name!

- 1 YE saints, your music bring,
And swell the rapturous sound;
Strike every trembling string,
Till earth and heaven resound:
The triumphs of the cross we sing,—
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.
- 2 The cross—the cross alone—
Subdued the powers of hell;
Like lightning from his throne,
The prince of darkness fell:
The triumphs of the cross we sing,—
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

- 3 The hand of wrath is stayed,
 In its pursuit of blood ;
 The cross our debt has paid,
 And made our peace with God.
 The triumphs of the cross we sing, —
 Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.
- 4 The cross hath power to save
 From all the foes that rise ;
 The cross hath made the grave
 A passage to the skies :
 Angels and saints its power shall sing,
 Till heaven's eternal arches ring.

The Offence of the Cross. — COLVER.

- 1 WHY should the cross of Christ offend?
That cross is but a glass divine,
Where more than rainbow beauties blend,
Where God's perfections meet and shine.
- 2 Why is it that the cross offends?
True, it proclaims the guilt of sin, —
A storm of dreadful wrath portends,
But pours the blood that makes us clean.
- 3 Why should the cross of Christ offend?
True, it proclaims our helplessness;
But points to an almighty Friend,
And speaks of free and sovereign grace.

 My guilty heart; but now no more;
 Subdued before the cross I bend,
 And thy redeeming grace adore.

 Life with trials hard may press me;

On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 Forbid it, Lord ! that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God ;
All the vain things that charm me most,

Sorrow and love flow mingled down ;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,

Different Receptions of the Cross. — WATTS.

- 1 CHRIST and his cross is all our theme;
The mysteries that we speak
Are scandal in the Jew's esteem,
And folly to the Greek.
- 2 But souls enlightened from above,
With joy receive the word;
They see what wisdom, power, and love,
Shine in their dying Lord.

The heart, unchanged, can never rise
To happiness and God.
- 2 Can aught, beneath a power divine,
The stubborn will subdue?
'T is thine, eternal Spirit, thine,
To form the heart anew.
- 3 'T is thine, the passions to recall,
And upward bid them rise;
To make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes;—
- 4 To chase the shades of death away,
And bid the sinner live;
A beam of heaven—a vital ray,
'T is thine alone to give.
- 5 O! change these wretched hearts of ours,
And give them life divine;
Then shall our passions and our powers,
Almighty Lord, be thine.

Pleading the Promise of the Spirit. — CHRISTIAN PSALMIST.

- 1 O THOU that hearest prayer,
Attend our humble cry;
And let thy servants share
Thy blessing from on high:
We plead the promise of thy word;
Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord.

- 2 If earthly parents hear
 Their children when they cry ;
 If they, with love sincere,
 Their varied wants supply :
 Much more wilt thou thy love display,
 And answer when thy children pray.
- 3 Our heavenly Father, thou ;
 We, children of thy grace ;
 O let thy Spirit now
 Descend and fill the place :
 So shall we feel the heavenly flame,
 And all unite to praise thy name.

The Outpouring and Offices of the Spirit. — COTTERIL.

- 1 LET songs of praises fill the sky !
 Christ, our ascended Lord,
 Sends down his Spirit from on high,
 According to his word.
- 2 The Spirit, by his heavenly breath,
 New life creates within ;
 He quickens sinners from the death
 Of trespasses and sin.
- 3 The things of Christ the Spirit takes,
 And to our heart reveals ;
 Our bodies he his temple makes,
 And our redemption seals.
- 4 Come, Holy Spirit, from above,
 With thy celestial fire ;
 Come, and with flames of zeal and love
 Our hearts and tongues inspire.

The Guidance of the Spirit. — BROWN.

- 1 COME, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With light and comfort from above ;
Be thou our guardian, thou our guide ;
O'er every thought and step preside.
- 2 Conduct us safe, conduct us far
From every sin and hurtful snare ;
Lead to thy word, that rules must give,
And teach us lessons how to live.
- 3 Lead us to holiness, the road
That we must take to dwell with God ;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from his pastures stray.
- 4 Lead us to God, our final rest,
In his enjoyment to be blest ;
Lead us to heaven, the seat of bliss,
Where pleasure in perfection is.

Blest Comforter Divine. — CLELAND'S HYMNS.

- 1 BLEST Comforter divine !
Let rays of heavenly love
Amidst our gloom and darkness shine,
And guide our souls above.
- 2 Draw, with thy "still small voice,"
From every sinful way ;
And bid the mourning saint rejoice,
Though earthly joys decay.
- 3 By thine inspiring breath
Make every cloud of care,
And e'en the gloomy vale of death,
A smile of glory wear.

- 4 O fill thou every heart
 With love to all our race!
 Great Comforter! to us impart
 These blessings of thy grace.

Prayer for Light and Sanctification. — REED.

- 1 HOLY GHOST! with light divine
 Shine upon this heart of mine;
 Chase the shades of night away;
 Turn my darkness into day.
- 2 Holy Ghost! with power divine
 Cleanse this guilty heart of mine;
 Long hath sin, without control,
 Held dominion o'er my soul.
- 3 Holy Ghost! with joy divine
 Cheer this saddened heart of mine;
 Bid my many woes depart;
 Heal my wounded, bleeding heart.
- 4 Holy Spirit, all divine!
 Dwell within this heart of mine;
 Cast down every idol-throne;
 Reign supreme, and reign alone.

 Thine ear, in kind compassion, lend ;
 Let us thy mercy see.
- 2 Behold, thy weary churches wait,
 With wishful, longing eyes ;
 Let us no more lie desolate ;
 O, bid thy light arise.
- 3 Thy light, that on our souls hath shone,
 Leads us in hope to thee ;
 Let us not feel its rays alone —
 Alone thy people be.
- 4 O, bring our dearest friends to God ;
 Remember those we love ;
 Fit them, on earth, for thine abode ;
 Fit them for joys above.

- 2 Come, thou incarnate Word!
 Gird on thy mighty sword ;
 Our prayer attend :
 Come, and thy people bless,
 And give thy word success ;
 Spirit of holiness !
 On us descend.

- 3 Come, holy Comforter !
 Thy sacred witness bear
 In this glad hour :
 Thou, who almighty art,
 Now rule in every heart,
 And ne'er from us depart,

- 1 FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand:
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.
- 2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile:
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we whose souls are lighted
 With wisdom from on high,
 Can we to men benighted
 The lamp of life deny?
 Salvation, O salvation!
 The joyful sound proclaim,
 Till earth's remotest nation
 Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
 And you, ye waters, roll,
 Till like a sea of glory,
 It spreads from pole to pole:
 Till o'er our ransomed nature,
 The Lamb for sinners slain,
 Redeemer, King, Creator,
 In bliss returns to reign.

On the Death of a Missionary. — S. SONGS.

- 1 WEEP not for the saint that ascends
 To partake of the joys of the sky;
 Weep not for the seraph that bends
 With the worshipping chorus on high;
 Weep not for the spirit now crowned
 With the garlands to martyrdom given;
 O weep not for him, he has found
 His reward and his refuge in heaven.
- 2 But weep for their sorrows who stand
 And lament o'er the dead by his grave;
 Who sigh when they muse on the land
 Of their home far away o'er the wave:
 And weep for the nations that dwell
 Where the light of the truth never shone;
 Where anthems of peace never swell,
 And the love of the Lord is unknown.

Morning Light is breaking. — S. F. SMITH.

- 1 THE morning light is breaking ;
 The darkness disappears ;
 The sons of earth are waking
 To penitential tears :
 Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
 Brings tidings from afar
 Of nations in commotion,
 Prepared for Zion's war.

- 2 Rich dews of grace come o'er us,
 In many a gentle shower,
 And brighter scenes before us
 Are opening every hour :
 Each cry to heaven going,
 Abundant answer brings,
 And heavenly gales are blowing,
 With peace upon their wings.

- 3 See heathen nations bending
 Before the God we love,
 And thousand hearts ascending
 In gratitude above ;
 While sinners, now confessing,
 The gospel call obey,
 And seek the Saviour's blessing, —
 A nation in a day.

- 4 Blest river of salvation,
 Pursue thy onward way ;
 Flow thou to every nation,
 Nor in thy richness stay :
 Stay not till all the lowly
 Triumphant reach their home,
 Stay not till all the holy
 Proclaim, " The Lord is come."

Heathen calling for Help. — ANON.

- 1 HARK! a distant voice is calling;
Mournfully it meets the ear;
Louder still those accents falling,
Fill each heart with thoughtful fear;
Let us listen, —
Now the cry of grief is near.
- 2 'T is the groan of spirits dying;
Lost in sin's dark night they stray;
'T is the call of thousands crying,
“Ye who know the living way,
Come and guide us
To the land of perfect day.”
- 3 We would help them, O our Father!
Thou hast bid us freely give;
Wilt thou not these wanderers gather?
Shall not dying sinners live?
Hear our pleading,
And our past neglect forgive.
- 4 Let us send to every nation
News of light and life divine;
And to spread thy great salvation,
Freely all our powers resign;
Take the first fruits,
Then our lives shall all be thine.

Let Satan and his kingdom fall,
And Jesus Christ be all in all.

Ordination and Departure of Missionaries. — VOKE.

1 YE messengers of Christ,
His sovereign voice obey ;
Arise, and follow where he leads,
And peace attend your way.

2 The Master whom you serve
Will needful strength bestow ;
Depending on his promised aid,
With sacred courage go.

3 Mountains shall sink to plains,
And hell in vain oppose ;
The cause is God's, and must prevail,
In spite of all his foes.

4 Go, spread a Saviour's fame,
And tell his matchless grace
To the most guilty and depraved
Of Adam's numerous race.

5 We wish you, in his name,
The most divine success,
Assured that he who sends you forth
Will your endeavors bless.

- 1 HASTEN, Lord, the glorious time,
When, beneath Messiah's sway,
Every nation, every clime,
Shall the gospel call obey.
- 2 Highest kings his power shall own ;
Heathen tribes his name adore ;
Satan and his host o'erthrown,
Bound in chains, shall hurt no more.
- 3 Then shall wars and tumults cease,
Then be banished grief and pain ;
Righteousness, and joy, and peace,
Undisturbed, shall ever reign.

- 1 SOUND, sound the truth abroad ;
Bear ye the word of God
Through the wide world :
Tell what our Lord has done,
Tell how the day is won,
And from his lofty throne
Satan is hurled.

- 2 Speed on the wings of love ;
 Jesus, who reigns above,
 Bids us to fly :
 They who his message bear
 Should neither doubt nor fear ;
 He will their friend appear ;
 He will be nigh.
- 3 When on the mighty deep
 He will their spirits keep,
 Stayed on his word ;
 When in a foreign land,
 No other friend at hand,
 Jesus will by them stand,—
 Jesus, their Lord.

The Missionary's Farewell. — S. F. SMITH.

- 1 YES, my native land, I love thee ;
 All thy scenes. I love them well :
 Friends, connections, happy country,
 Can I bid you all farewell ?
 Can I leave you,
 Far in heathen lands to dwell ?
- 2 Home, thy joys are passing lovely—
 Joys no stranger-heart can tell :
 Happy home, indeed I love thee :
 Can I, can I say, "Farewell ?"
 Can I leave thee,
 Far in heathen lands to dwell ?

- 3 Scenes of sacred peace and pleasure,
Holy days and Sabbath bell;
Richest, brightest, sweetest treasure,
Can I say a last farewell?
Can I leave you,
Far in heathen lands to dwell?
- 4 Yes, I hasten from you gladly—
From the scenes I loved so well:
Far away, ye billows, bear me:
Lovely native land, farewell!
Pleased I leave thee,
Far in heathen lands to dwell!
- 5 In the deserts let me labor;
On the mountains let me tell
How he died—the blesséd Saviour—
To redeem a world from hell:
Let me hasten,
Far in heathen lands to dwell.
- 6 Bear me on, thou restless ocean;
Let the winds my canvass swell:
Heaves my heart with warm emotion,
While I go far hence to dwell:
Glad I bid thee,
Native land, farewell, farewell!

Remember thy Creator.—S. F. SMITH.

- 1 REMEMBER thy Creator
While youth's fair spring is bright,
Before thy cares are greater,
Before comes age's night ;
While yet the sun shines o'er thee,
While stars the darkness cheer,
While life is all before thee,
Thy great Creator fear.

- 2 Remember thy Creator
 Ere life resigns its trust,
 Ere sinks dissolving nature,
 And dust returns to dust ;
 Before with God, who gave it,
 The spirit shall appear,
 He cries, who died to save it,
 "Thy great Creator fear."

Wise Reflections. — S. S. HYMN BOOK.

- 1 WHY should we spend our youthful days
 In folly and in sin?
 When wisdom shows her pleasant ways,
 And bids us walk therein.
- 2 Folly and sin our peace destroy;
 They glitter, then are past;
 They yield a moment's fleeting joy,
 And end in death at last.
- 3 But if true wisdom we possess,
 Our joys shall never cease;
 Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
 And all her paths are peace.
- 4 O may we now, in youthful days,
 Attend to wisdom's voice;
 And make her holy, happy ways
 Our own delightful choice.

 Soon the sacred day be done;
 But a sweeter rest remains,
 Where the glorious Saviour reigns.
- 2 Pleasant is the Sabbath chime,
 Borne upon the breeze sublime;
 Kind our teachers are to-day,—
 In the school we love to stay.

- 3 But a music sweeter far,
Breathes where angel spirits are ;
Higher far than earthly strains,
Where the rest of God remains.
- 4 Shall we ever rise to dwell
Where immortal praises swell ;
And can ever children go
Where eternal Sabbaths glow ?
- 5 Yes, that rest our own may be, —
All the good shall Jesus see ;
For the good a rest remains,
Where the glorious Saviour reigns.

Remember thy Creator. — ANON.

- 1 O COME in life's gay morning,
Ere in thy sunny way
The flowers of hope have withered,
And sorrow ends thy day;
Come while from joy's bright fountain
The streams of pleasure flow;
Come, ere thy buoyant spirits
Have felt the blight of woe.
- 2 Remember thy Creator
Now in thy youthful days,
And he will guide thy footsteps
Through life's uncertain maze.
Remember thy Creator,
He calls in tones of love,
And offers deathless glories
In brighter worlds above.
- 3 And in the hour of sadness,
When earthly joys depart,
His love shall be thy solace,
And cheer thy drooping heart:
And when life's storm is over,
And thou from earth art free,
Thy God will be thy portion
Throughout eternity.

O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we know no help but thee:
Still possessing every blessing,
If our God our Father be.

2 Saviour! breathe forgiveness o'er us;
 All our weakness thou dost know;
 Thou didst tread the world before us,
 Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
 Lone and dreary, weak and weary,
 Through the desert thou didst go!

3 Spirit of our God, descending,
 Fill our hearts with heavenly joy;
 Love with kind affection blending,—
 Pleasures time can never cloy.
 Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
 Nothing shall our peace destroy.

Death of a Teacher. — E. BRADFORD.

- 1 IN vain we wait his presence now ;
 He comes not to his wonted seat ;
 No more with us in prayer he 'll bow,
 Or join our tuneful numbers sweet.
- 2 No more his youthful charge he 'll lead
 Along the straight and narrow way ;
 Urge them true wisdom's voice to heed,
 And seek their God without delay.
- 3 For him in vain his class will seek, —
 His empty seat but mocks their gaze ;
 He will not come from his long sleep
 Till God's last trump his dust shall raise.
- 4 But though from these loved scenes withdrawn,
 And from the earthly Sabbath's light,
 We trust his spirit hails the dawn
 Of heaven's eternal Sabbath bright.
- 5 Thus, one by one, we all shall go,
 And leave our places vacant here ;
 But in the better land, we know
 They never shed the parting tear.

The Song of Children.—MRS. T. P. S.

- 1 ONCE was heard the song of children
 By the Saviour when on earth;
 Joyful in the sacred temple
 Shouts of youthful praise had birth,
 And hosannas
 Loud to David's Son broke forth.
- 2 Palms of victory strewn around him,
 Garments spread beneath his feet,
 Prophet of the Lord they crowned him,
 In fair Salem's crowded street;
 While hosannas
 From the lips of children greet.
- 3 Blesséd Saviour, now triumphant,
 Glorified and throned on high,
 Mortal lays from man or infant,
 Vain to tell thy praises try;
 But hosannas
 Swell the chorus of the sky.
- 4 God o'er all in heaven reigning,
 We this day thy glory sing;
 Not with palms thy pathway strewing;
 We would loftier tribute bring—
 Glad hosannas
 To our Prophet, Priest, and King.
- 5 O, though humble is our offering,
 Deign accept our grateful lays;
 These from children once proceeding,
 Thou didst deem "perfected praise."
 Now hosannas,
 Saviour, Lord, to thee we raise.

Prayer for Children's Conversion. — MOTHER'S HYMN BOOK

- 1 O LORD, behold us at thy feet,
A needy, sinful band ;
As suppliants round thy mercy-seat,
We come at thy command.
- 2 'T is for our children we would plead,
The offspring thou hast given ;
Where shall we go, in time of need,
But to the God of heaven ?
- 3 We ask not for them wealth or fame,
Amid the worldly strife ;
But, in the all-prevailing Name,
We ask eternal life.
- 4 We crave the Spirit's quickening grace,
To make them pure in heart ;
That they may stand before thy face,
And see thee as thou art.

Parental Solicitude. — Esther viii. 6. — CHRISTIAN PSALMIST.

- 1 How can we see the children, Lord,
Thou hast in mercy given,
Remain regardless of thy word,
Without a hope of heaven ?

MATERNAL MEETINGS.

- 2 How can we see them tread the path
That leads to endless death ;
Thus adding to thy fearful wrath,
With every moment's breath ?
- 3 Lord, hear the parents' earnest cry,
And save our children dear ;
Now send thy Spirit from on high,
And fill them with thy fear.
- 4 Oh, make them love thy holy law,
And joyful walk therein :
Their hearts to new obedience draw ;
Save them from every sin.

Prayer for Children. — MOTHER'S HYMN BOOK.

- 1 WITHIN these quiet walls, O Lord,
A fond maternal band
Have met, thy goodness to record,
And seek thy guiding hand.
- 2 Oft when we talk, our burning hearts
Break from the earth away ;
While faith its holy strength imparts,
And hope its heavenly ray.
- 3 If e'er a mother's prayerful strain
Hath gained thy listening ear,
O ! Saviour, now in mercy deign
Our ardent cry to hear.
- 4 'T is for our children, Lord, we plead, —
Dear objects of our care :
Dangers on every side are spread ;
Save them from every snare.

Time is short. — HOSKINS.

- 1 THE time is short! the season near,
When death will us remove,
To leave our friends, however dear,
And all we fondly love.
- 2 The time is short! let us beware,
Nor trifle time away;
The word of great salvation hear,
While it is called to-day.
- 3 The time is short! O let us now
To Christ the Lord submit;
To mercy's golden sceptre bow,
And fall at Jesus' feet.
- 4 The time is short! ye saints rejoice —
The Lord will quickly come:
Soon shall you hear the Bridegroom's voice,
To call you to your home.

The raging wind shall cease;
The Christian's bark will reach the shore

The Sun of Righteousness is near,
And terrors take their flight.

Eternity. — FREEMAN'S SEL.

- 1 ETERNITY is just at hand !
And shall I waste my ebbing sand,
And careless view departing day,
And throw my inch of time away ?
- 2 But an eternity there is
Of endless wo, or endless bliss ;
And swift as time fulfils its round,
We to eternity are bound.
- 3 What countless millions of mankind
Have left this fleeting world behind !
They're gone ! but where ? — ah, pause and see !
Gone to a long eternity.
- 4 Sinner ! canst thou forever dwell
In all the fiery deeps of hell ?
Has death no warning sound for thee ?
O turn, and to the Saviour flee.

Life but a Vapor. — HYMNS OF ZION.

- 1 LIFE but a fleeting vapor is ;
How soon its dreams are past !
However bright its scenes of bliss,
We feel they cannot last.
- 2 Time hasteth, as a post, away,
Or, like an arrow, flies ;
The flower that brightly blooms to-day,
To-morrow droops and dies !
- 3 Yet, gracious God ! our fleeting days
Thy constant favors share ;
And blessings, in thy truth and grace,
Thou ever dost prepare.

- 4 In all thy doings thou art good,
 And all thy ways are love ;
 Thou sheddest on our pilgrim-road
 The day-spring from above.

Boylston.Fleeting Time must be improved. — WATTS.

- 1 LORD, what a feeble piece
 Is this, our mortal frame !
 Our life — how poor a trifle 't is,
 That scarce deserves the name !
- 2 Our moments fly apace,
 Our feeble powers decay ;
 Swift as a flood our hasty days
 Are sweeping us away.
- 3 But if our days must fly,
 We 'll keep their end in sight ;
 We 'll spend them all in wisdom's ways,
 And let them speed their flight.
- 4 They 'll waft us sooner o'er
 This life's tempestuous sea ;
 Soon we shall reach the peaceful shore
 Of blest eternity.

Shirland.Importance of To-day. — DODDRIDGE.

- 1 TO-MORROW, Lord, is thine,
 Lodged in thy sovereign hand ;
 And if its sun arise and shine,
 It shines by thy command.
- 2 The present moment flies,
 And bears our life away ;
 O, make thy servants truly wise,
 That they may live to-day.

- 3 Since on this fleeting hour
 Eternity is hung,
 Awake, by thine almighty power,
 The aged and the young.
- 4 One thing demands our care ;
 O, be that still pursued,
 Lest, slighted once, the season fair
 Should never be renewed.
- 5 To Jesus may we fly,
 Swift as the morning light ;
 Lest life's young, golden beams should die
 In sudden, endless night.

Work while it is Day. — ANON.

- 1 As flies the shuttle o'er the loom,
 So mortals hasten to the tomb ;
 As ships that skim the raging sea,
 Or eagles darting on their prey.
- 2 As vanishes the fleeting shade ;
 As flowers before the evening fade .
 Such is the life of feeble man ;
 His days are measured by a span.
- 3 I would not wish on earth to stay
 Beyond this short uncertain day ;
 But, Lord, prepare my soul to do
 The work appointed me below.
- 4 With willing heart and active hands,
 Lord, I would practise thy commands ;
 Improve the moments as they fly,
 And live as I would wish to die.

The departed Year. — DODDRIDGE.

- 1 GOD of my life, thy constant care
With mercy crowns the opening year ;
And while the months and days prolong,
I'll raise to thee my grateful song.
- 2 How many precious souls have fled
To the vast regions of the dead,
Since the departed year began,
While suns and moons in circles ran !
- 3 Our breath is thine, eternal God ;
'T is thine to fix the soul's abode ;
We hold our life from thee alone,
On earth and in the world unknown.
- 4 To thee our souls we here resign ;
O make us, Lord, forever thine ;
So may we smile, secure from fear,
Though death should blast the rising year.

Each moment brings it near ;
Then welcome, each declining day !
Welcome, each closing year !

Swiftness of Time. — DODDRIDGE.

- 1 REMARK, my soul, the narrow bound
Of the revolving year;
How swift the weeks complete their round!
How short the months appear!
- 2 So fast eternity comes on —
And that important day,
When all that mortal life hath done,
God's judgment shall survey.
- 3 Yet, like an idle tale, we pass
The swift revolving year;
And study artful ways to increase
The speed of its career.
- 4 Waken, O God, my careless heart,
Its great concerns to see;
That I may act the Christian part,
And give the year to thee.

Frailty of Life. — WATTS.

- 1 THEE we adore, Eternal Name,
And humbly own to thee
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we!
- 2 Our wasting lives grow shorter still,
As months and days increase;
And every beating pulse we tell,
Leaves but the number less.

CLOSE OF THE YEAR.

- 3 The year rolls round and steals away
The breath that first it gave ;
Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
We're travelling to the grave.
- 4 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense
To walk this dangerous road ;
And if our souls are hurried hence,
May they be found with God.

Reviewing the past Year. — DODDRIDGE.

- 1 OUR helper, God ! we bless thy name,
Whose love forever is the same ;
The tokens of thy gracious care
Open, and crown, and close the year.
- 2 Amid ten thousand snares we stand,
Supported by thy guardian hand ;
And see, when we review our ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.
- 3 Thus far thine arm has led us on ;
Thus far we make thy mercy known ;
And while we tread this desert land,
New mercies shall new songs demand.
- 4 Our grateful souls, on Jordan's shore,
Shall raise one sacred pillar more ;
Then bear, in thy bright courts above,
Inscriptions of immortal love.

Each bough shall tremble at the shock

A Song for the opening Year. — DODDRIDGE.

- 1 GREAT God! we sing that mighty hand,
By which supported still we stand;
The opening year thy mercy shows, —
Let mercy crown it till it close.
- 2 By day, by night — at home, abroad,
Still we are guarded by our God;
By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led.
- 3 With grateful hearts the past we own;
The future — all to us unknown —
We to thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before thy feet.

And make thy glory known ;
Make us the Saviour's presence feel,
And soften hearts of stone.
- 2 From all the guilt of former sin
May mercy set us free ;
And let the year we now begin,
Begin and end with thee.
- 3 Send down thy Spirit from above,
That saints may love thee more ;
That sinners now may learn to love,
Who never loved before.

In our eternal home,
May growing numbers worship here,
And praise thee in our room.

The New Year.—NEWTON.

- 1 SEE ! another year is gone !
Quickly have the seasons passed !
This we enter now upon
May to many prove their last.
- 2 Mercy hitherto has spared :
But have mercies been improved ?
Let us ask, " Am I prepared
Should I be this year removed ? "

- 3 Some we now no longer see,
 Who their mortal race have run,
 Seemed as fair for life as we,
 When the former year begun.
- 4 Some (but who God only knows)
 Who are here assembled now,
 Ere the present year shall close,
 To the stroke of death must bow.
- 5 If from guilt and sin set free
 By the knowledge of thy grace,
 Welcome, then, the call will be
 To depart and see thy face.
- 6 To thy saints, while here below,
 With new years, new mercies come ;
 But the happiest year they know
 Is their last, which leads them home.

Uncertainty of Life. — NEWTON.

- 1 WHILE with ceaseless course the sun
 Hasted through the former year,
 Many souls their race have run,
 Never more to meet us here.
 Fixed in an eternal state,
 They have done with all below ;
 We a little longer wait,
 But how little none can know.
- 2 As the wingéd arrow flies
 Speedily the mark to find —
 As the lightning from the skies
 Darts and leaves no trace behind —
 Swiftly thus our fleeting days
 Bear us down life's rapid stream.
 Upwards, Lord, our spirits raise :
 All below is but a dream.

DEATH.

- 3 Thanks for mercies past receive ;
Pardon of our sins renew ;
Teach us henceforth how to live
With eternity in view.
Bless thy word to young and old ;
Fill us with a Saviour's love ;
And when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with thee above.

Life the Day of Grace and Hope. — WATTS.

- 1 LIFE is the time to serve the Lord,
The time to ensure the great reward ;
And while the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return.
- 2 Life is the hour that God hath given
To 'scape from hell, and fly to heaven ;
The day of grace, and mortals may
Secure the blessings of the day.
- 3 Then what my thoughts design to do,
My hands with all your might, pursue ;
Since no device nor work is found,
Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.
- 4 There are no acts of pardon passed
In the cold grave to which we haste ;
But darkness, death, and long despair
Reign in eternal silence there.

Death of a young Person. — STEELE.

- 1 WHEN blooming youth is snatched away
By death's resistless hand,
Our hearts the mournful tribute pay
Which pity must demand.
- 2 And while we raise the tearful eye,
With mourning thoughts impressed,
Oh may this truth — "I too must die," —
Sink deep in every breast.
- 3 Let this vain world engage no more ;
Behold the gaping tomb !
It bids us seize the present hour ;
To-morrow death may come.
- 4 O let us fly, to Jesus fly,
Whose powerful arm can save ;
Then shall our hopes ascend on high,
And triumph o'er the grave.

Farewell, inconstant world, farewell !

Death and immediate Glory. — WATTS.

- 1 THERE is a house not made with hands,
Eternal and on high ;
And here my spirit waiting stands
Till God shall bid it fly.
- 2 Shortly this prison of my clay
Shall be dissolved and fall ;
Then, O my soul, with joy obey
Thy heavenly Father's call.
- 3 'T is he, by his almighty grace,
That forms thee fit for heaven ;
And as an earnest of the place,
Has his own Spirit given.
- 4 We walk by faith of joys to come :
Faith lives upon his word :
But while the body is our home,
We 're absent from the Lord.
- 5 'T is pleasant to believe thy grace,
But sweeter far to see :
We would be absent from the flesh,
And present, Lord, with thee.

Beneath us lie the countless dead,
Above us is the heaven !
- 2 Death rides on every passing breeze,
And lurks in every flower ;
Each season has its own disease,
Its peril every hour.

- 3 Turn, mortal, turn! — thy danger know:
 Where'er thy foot can tread,
 The earth rings hollow from below,
 And warns thee of her dead!
- 4 Turn, Christian, turn! — thy soul apply
 To truths which hourly tell
 That they who underneath thee lie
 Shall live in heaven or hell!

Death of a Minister. — DODDRIDGE.

- 1 Now let our mourning hearts revive,
 And all our tears be dry;
 Why should those eyes be drowned in grief,
 Which view a Saviour nigh?
- 2 Though earthly shepherds dwell in dust,
 The aged and the young —
 The watchful eye in darkness closed,
 And mute th' instructive tongue; —
- 3 Th' eternal Shepherd still survives,
 New comfort to impart;
 His eye still guides us, and his voice
 Still animates our heart.
- 4 “Lo, I am with you,” saith the Lord;
 “My church shall safe abide;
 For I will ne'er forsake my own,
 Whose souls in me confide.”

God's Presence makes Death easy. — WATTS.

We may walk through its darkest shade,

- 2 I could renounce my all below,
If my Redeemer bid ;
And run, if I were called to go,
And die, as Moses did.
- 3 Might I but climb to Pisgah's top,

To triumph o'er the monster Death,
And all his frightful powers !
- 2 Joyful, with all the strength I have,
My quivering lips should sing —
“Where is thy boasted victory, Grave ?
And where, O Death, thy sting ?”
- 3 If sin be pardoned, I'm secure ;
Death has no sting beside :
The law gives sin its damning power ;
But Christ, my ransom, died.

- 4 Now to the God of victory
 Immortal thanks be paid,
 Who makes us conquerors, while we die
 Through Christ, our living head.

- 3 Thus much, and this is all, we know,

 Shall I among them stand?
 Shall such a worthless worm as I,
 Who sometimes am afraid to die,
 Be found at thy right hand?
- 2 I love to meet thy people now,
 Before thy feet with them to bow,
 Though vilest of them all;
 But—can I bear the piercing thought?—
 What if my name should be left out,
 When thou for them shalt call?
- 3 O Lord, prevent it by thy grace;
 Be thou my only hiding-place,
 In this, th' accepted day;
 Thy pard'ning voice, O, let me hear,
 To still my unbelieving fear,
 Nor let me fall, I pray.
- 4 And when the final trump shall sound,
 Among thy saints let me be found,
 To bow before thy face;
 Then in triumphant strains I'll sing,
 While heaven's resounding mansions ring
 With praise of sovereign grace.

 To mourning wanderers given ;
 There is a joy for souls distressed,
 A balm for every wounded breast ;
 'T is found alone in heaven.
- 2 There is a home for weary souls,
 By sins and sorrows driven ;
 When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
 Where storms arise and ocean rolls,
 And all is drear — 't is heaven.
- 3 There faith lifts up the tearless eye,
 The heart with anguish riven, —
 It views the tempest passing by,

 There rays divine disperse the gloom ;
 Beyond the dark and narrow tomb

Land of pure Delight. — WATTS.

- 1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Eternal day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But tim'rous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea;
And linger, shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O! could we make our doubts remove,—
Those gloomy doubts that rise,—
And see the Canaan that we love,
With unbeckoned eyes;—
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,—
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

 We seek a city yet to come.
- 3 We 've no abiding city here ;
 Then let us live as pilgrims do ;
 Let not the world our rest appear ;
 But let us haste from all below.
- 4 We 've no abiding city here ;
 We seek a city out of sight :
 Zion its name ; the Lord is there ;
 It shines with everlasting light.

Holiness of Heaven. — WATTS.

- 1 NOR eye hath seen, nor ear hath heard,
 Nor sense nor reason known,
 What joys the Father has prepared
 For those that love his Son.
- 2 But the good Spirit of the Lord
 Reveals a heaven to come ;
 The beams of glory in his word
 Allure and guide us home.
- 3 Pure are the joys above the sky,
 And all the region peace ;
 No wanton lips, nor envious eye,
 Can see or taste the bliss.
- 4 Those holy gates forever bar
 Pollution, sin, and shame ;
 And none shall gain admittance there
 But followers of the Lamb.

The Happy Land.Prospect of Heaven. — STENNETT.

- 1 ON Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.
- 2 O the transporting, rapturous scene,
That rises to my sight!
Sweet fields arrayed in living green
And rivers of delight!
- 3 All o'er those wide-extended plains
Shines one eternal day;
There God, the Sun, forever reigns,
And scatters night away.
- 4 No chilling winds or poisonous breath
Can reach that healthful shore;
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more.
- 5 When shall I reach that happy place,
And be forever blest?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest?

Dundee.Freedom from Sin and Misery in Heaven. — WATTS.

- 1 OUR sins, alas! how strong they be!
And, like a raging sea,
They break our duty, Lord, to thee,
And hurry us away.
- 2 The waves of trouble, how they rise!
How loud the tempests roar!
But death shall land our weary souls
Safe on the heavenly shore.

- 3 There, to fulfil his sweet commands,
 Our speedy feet shall move :
 No sin shall clog our winged zeal,
 Or cool our burning love.
- 4 There shall we sit, and sing and tell
 The wonders of his grace ;
 Till heavenly raptures fire our hearts,
 And smile in every face.
- 5 Forever his dear, sacred name
 Shall dwell upon our tongue ;
 And Jesus and salvation be
 The close of every song.

Auld Lang Syne.Hope of Heaven our Support on Earth. — WATTS.

- 1 WHEN I can read my title clear
 To mansions in the skies,
 I bid farewell to every fear,
 And wipe my weeping eyes.
- 2 Should earth against my soul engage,
 And hellish darts be hurled,
 Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
 And face a frowning world.
- 3 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
 And storms of sorrow fall ;
 May I but safely reach my home,
 My God, my heaven, my all :—
- 4 There shall I bathe my weary soul
 In seas of heavenly rest ;
 And not a wave of trouble roll
 Across my peaceful breast.

The Peace of Heaven. — BEDDOME.

- 1 THERE is a world of perfect bliss
Above the starry skies ;
Oppressed with sorrows and with sins,
I thither lift my eyes.
- 2 'T is there the weary are at rest,
And all is peace within ;
The mind, with guilt no more oppressed,
Is tranquil and serene.
- 3 Discord and strife are banished thence,
Distrust and slavish fear ;
No more we hear the pensive sigh,
Or see the falling tear.

The Christian's Prospect. — WATTS.

- 1 WHAT sinners value I resign ;
Lord, 't is enough that thou art mine ;
I shall behold thy blissful face,
And stand complete in righteousness.
- 2 This life 's a dream—an empty show ;
But that bright world to which I go
Hath joys substantial and sincere :
When shall I wake and find me there ?
- 3 O glorious hour ! O blest abode !
I shall be near and like my God,
And flesh and sin no more control
The sacred pleasures of my soul.
- 4 My flesh shall slumber in the ground
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound,
Then burst the chains, with glad surprise,
And in my Saviour's image rise.

Victory through the Lamb. — WATTS.

- 1 GIVE me the wings of faith, to rise
 Within the veil, and see
 The saints above, how great their joys,
 How bright their glories be.
- 2 I ask them whence their vict'ry came ;
 They, with united breath,
 Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
 Their triumph to his death.
- 3 They marked the footsteps he had trod ;
 His zeal inspired their breast ;
 And, following their incarnate God,
 Possess the promised rest.
- 4 Our glorious Leader claims our praise,
 For his own pattern given ;
 While the long cloud of witnesses
 Show the same path to heaven.

Earthly and heavenly Good. — MRS. STEELE.

- 1 How vain a thought is bliss below !
 'T is all an airy dream ;
 How empty are the joys that flow
 On pleasure's smiling stream !
- 2 O ! let my nobler wishes soar

Heaven. — W. B. TAPPAN.

- 1 THERE is an hour of hallowed peace
For those with cares oppressed,
When sighs and sorrowing tears shall cease,
And all be hushed to rest.
- 2 'T is then the soul is freed from fears,
And doubts which here annoy ;
Then they that oft had sown in tears
Shall reap again in joy.
- 3 There is a home of sweet repose,

The stream of endless pleasure flows
On that celestial shore.

And bliss without alloy ;
There they that oft had sown in tears
Shall reap again in joy.

Nothing true but Heaven. — WESLEYAN PSALMIST.

- 1 THIS world is all a fleeting show,
For man's illusion given ;
The smiles of joy, the tears of woe,
Deceitful shine, deceitful flow, —
There 's nothing true but heaven.

- 2 And false the light on glory's plume,
 As fading hues of even ;
 And genius' bud and beauty's bloom,
 Are blossoms gathered for the tomb ; —
 There's nothing bright but heaven.
- 3 Poor wanderers of a stormy day,
 From wave to wave we're driven ;
 And fancy's flash and reason's ray,
 Serve but to light the troubled way ; —
 There's nothing calm but heaven.
- 4 In vain do mortals sigh for bliss,
 Without their sins forgiven ;
 True pleasure, everlasting peace,
 Are only found in God's free grace ; —
 There's nothing good but heaven.

Heaven on Earth. — WESLEYAN PSALMIST.

- 1 THIS world's not "all a fleeting show,
 For man's illusion given ;"
 He that hath soothed a widow's woe,
 Or wiped the orphan's tear, doth know
 There's something here of heaven ;
- 2 And he that walks life's thorny way,
 With feelings calm and even ;
 Whose path is lit from day to day
 By virtue's bright and steady ray,
 Hath something felt of heaven.
- 3 He that the Christian's course hath run,
 And all his foes forgiven —
 Who measures out life's little span,
 In love to God, and love to man,
 On earth has tasted heaven.

- 4 From such as walk in wisdom's road,
 Corroding fears are driven;
 They're washed in Christ's atoning blood,
 Enjoy communion with their God,
 And find their way to heaven.

Morch.My Father's House. — R. TURNBULL.

- 1 THERE is a place of sacred rest,
 Far, far beyond the skies,
 Where beauty smiles eternally,
 And pleasure never dies; —
 My Father's house, my heavenly home,
 Where "many mansions" stand,
 Prepared, by hands divine, for all
 Who seek the better land.
- 2 In that pure home of tearless joy
 Earth's parted friends shall meet,
 With smiles of love that never fade,
 And blessedness complete;
 There, there adieus are sounds unknown;
 Death frowns not on that scene,
 But life, and glorious beauty, shine
 Untroubled and serene.

- 1 MY Father's house, my Father's house!
 O there is rest for me;
 A mansion where my Father dwells,
 I soon with joy shall see.
 Rush on, thou troubled stream of life,
 Nor spare my weary soul;
 Your noise and rage and hurrying strife
 But speed me to my goal.

2 My Father's house, my Father's house !

Blest Jesus, thou art there ;
 And there are those I loved on earth,
 His boundless bliss to share ;
 O how I long to reach the place
 Where my best kindred dwell ;
 Where I shall sing among the rest,
 And love the mansion well.

3 My Father's house, my Father's house !

I love to think of home,
 In all my lonely hours of night,
 While here on earth I roam ;
 Nor storm, nor care, nor grief is known,
 Throughout those blissful plains ;
 And I shall worship near that throne
 Where God, my Saviour, reigns.

Rest for the weary Soul. — MONTGOMERY.

1 OH, where shall rest be found, —

Rest for the weary soul ?

'Twere vain the ocean depths to sound,
 Or pierce to either pole.

2 The world can never give

The bliss for which we sigh !

'Tis not the whole of life to live,
 Nor all of death, to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears

There is a life above,

Unmeasured by the flight of years ;
 And all that life is love.

- 4 There is a death whose pang
 Outlasts the fleeting breath ;
 O what eternal horrors hang
 Around the second death !
- 5 Lord God of truth and grace,
 Teach us that death to shun ;
 Lest we be driven from thy face,
 And evermore undone.

- 1 THERE is a region lovelier far
 Than sages tell or poets sing ;
 Brighter than noon-day glories are,
 And softer than the tints of spring.
- 2 It is not fanned by summer's gale ;
 'T is not refreshed by vernal showers ;
 It never needs the moonbeam pale,
 For there are known no evening hours.
- 3 No ; for that world is ever bright
 With purest radiance all its own ;
 The streams of uncreated light
 Flow round it from th' eternal throne.
- 4 It is all holy and serene,
 The land of glory and repose ;
 No cloud obscures the radiant scene ;
 There not a tear of sorrow flows.
- 5 In vain the curious, searching eye
 May seek to view the fair abode,
 Or find it in the starry sky :
 It is the dwelling-place of God.

The heavenly Jerusalem. — MONTGOMERY.

- 1 JERUSALEM! my glorious home!
Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end,
In joy, and peace, and thee?
- 2 O when, thou city of my God,
Shall I thy courts ascend,
Where congregations ne'er break up,
And Sabbaths have no end?
- 3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin nor sorrow know;
Blest seats! through rude and stormy scenes
I onward press to you.
- 4 Why should I shrink at pain and woe,
Or feel, at death, dismay?
I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
And realms of endless day.
- 5 Jerusalem! my glorious home!
My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end,
When I thy joys shall see.

- 1 DREAD Jehovah! God of nations!
From thy temple in the skies,
Hear thy people's supplications,
Now for their deliverance rise:
- 2 Though our sins, our hearts confounding,
Long and loud for vengeance call,
Thou hast mercy more abounding;
Jesus' blood can cleanse them all.

Let that blood our guilt efface;
Save thy people from oppression;
Save from spoil thy holy place.
- 4 Lo! with deep contrition turning,
Humbly at thy feet we bend;
Hear us, fasting, praying, mourning;
Hear us, spare us, and defend.

Temperance Hymn. — LYRE.

- 1 How long shall virtue languish,
How long shall folly reign,
While many a heart with anguish
Is weeping o'er the plain ?
How long shall dissipation
Her deadly waters pour,
Throughout this favored nation,
Her millions to devour ?
- 2 When shall the veil of blindness
Fall from the shrine of wealth,
Restoring human kindness,
And industry, and health ?
When shall the charms so luring
Of bad example cease,
The end at once securing
Of temperance and peace ?

FREEDOM.

Carry joy to every breast ;
Make the wretched drunkard blest,

 And earth keep jubilee.
- 3 God of mercy ! hear us plead ;
For thy help we intercede ;
See how many bosoms bleed ;
 And heal them speedily.

When, beneath thy gentle ray,
Temperance all the world shall sway,

And forth thy fainting Israel bring.
- 2 In this our day, this Christian land
Groans with the anguish of the slave;
Lord God of hosts! stretch forth thy hand,
Not shortened that it cannot save.
- 3 Roll back the swelling tide of sin,
The lust of gain, the lust of power;
The day of freedom usher in;
O! hasten on th' appointed hour.

Lift to heaven the fettered hand;—

For the scourged and fettered slave;
All whose life is desolation,
All whose hope is in the grave.
God of mercy,

 With each helpless, suffering member
 Let our sympathies be found,
 Till our labors
 Spread the smile of freedom round.

- 1 HAIL to the Lord's anointed,
 Great David's greater Son !
 Hail, in the time appointed,
 His reign on earth begun !
 He comes to break oppression,
 To set the captive free ;
 To take away transgression,
 And rule in equity.
- 2 He comes, with succor speedy,
 To those who suffer wrong ;
 To help the poor and needy,
 And bid the weak be strong ;
 To give them songs for sighing,
 Their darkness turn to light,
 Whose souls, condemned and dying,
 Were precious in his sight.
- 3 He shall descend like showers
 Upon the fruitful earth,
 And love and joy, like flowers,
 Spring in his path to birth ;
 Before him, on the mountains,
 Shall peace, the herald, go ;
 And righteousness, in fountains,
 From hill to valley flow.

 And taste sweet liberty.
- 2 Lord! when shall man thy voice obey,
 And rend each iron chain?
 O! when shall love its golden sway
 O'er all the earth maintain?
- 3 Send thy good Spirit from above,
 And melt th'oppressor's heart;
 Send swift deliverance to the slave,
 And bid his woes depart.
- 4 With joy and gladness crown his day,
 And fill his heart with love;
 Teach him the straight and only way
 That leads to rest above.

Universal Freedom.

- 1 ROLL on, thou joyful day,
 When tyranny's proud sway,
 Stern as the grave,
 Shall to the ground be hurled,
 And freedom's flag unfurled,
 Shall wave throughout the world,
 O'er every slave.
- 2 Trump of glad jubilee,
 Echo o'er land and sea,
 Freedom for all:
 Let the glad tidings fly,
 And every tribe reply,
 Glory to God on high,
 At slavery's fall.

SEAMEN.

- 3 Free, too, the captive mind,
By darkness long confined
 In slavery's night.
The Saviour's reign extend,
Virtue with freedom blend,
And full salvation send,
 With freedom's light.

Thanksgiving for Deliverance in a Storm. — MADAN'S COLL.

- 1 OUR little bark, on boist'rous seas,
 By cruel tempest tossed,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
 Expecting to be lost,—
- 2 We to the Lord, in humble prayer,
 Breathed out our sad distress;
Though feeble, yet with contrite hearts,
 We begged return of peace.
- 3 The stormy winds did cease to blow;
 The waves no more did roll;
And soon again a placid sea
 Spoke comfort to each soul.
- 4 O, may our grateful, trembling hearts
 Sweet hallelujahs sing
To him who hath our lives preserved,
 Our Saviour and our King.
- 5 Let us proclaim to all the world,
 With heart and voice, again,
And tell the wonders he hath done
 For us, the sons of men.

Peterboro'.Desiring a heavenly Breeze.

- 1 O FOR a breeze of heavenly love,
To waft my soul away
To the celestial world above,
Where pleasures ne'er decay.
- 2 Eternal Spirit, deign to be
My pilot here below,
To steer through life's tempestuous sea,
Where winds do stormy blow.
- 3 From rocks of pride on either hand,
From quicksands of despair,
O guide me safe to Canaan's land,
Through every fatal snare.
- 4 Anchor me in that port above,
On that celestial shore,
Where dashing billows never move,
Where tempests never roar.

Duke Street.Prayer for the Conversion of Seamen. — P. H. B.

- 1 GRANT the abundance of the sea
May be converted, Lord, to thee,
And every sailor on the shore
Return to God, to roam no more.
- 2 The nations, then, with joy shall hail
The Bethel flag in every sail;
And every ship that ploughs the sea
A gospel messenger shall be.
- 3 Hasten, O Lord, that glorious day
When seamen shall thy word obey,
And safe from port to port be driven
To point a ruined world to heaven.

Dundee.For the Seamen's Concert. — P. H. B.

- 1 WE come, O Lord, before thy throne,
And with united pleas,
We meet and pray for those who roam
Far off upon the seas.
- 2 O may the Holy Spirit bow
The sailor's heart to thee,
Till tears of deep repentance flow
Like rain-drops in the sea.
- 3 Then may a Saviour's dying love
Pour peace into his breast,
And waft him to the port above
Of everlasting rest.

Hebron.Seaman's Prayer. — HOWE'S HYMNS.

- 1 BESET with snares on every hand,
In life's uncertain path I stand;
Saviour divine! diffuse thy light,
To guide my doubtful footsteps right.
- 2 Engage this roving, treacherous heart,
Great God, to choose the better part;
To scorn the trifles of a day,
For joys that none can take away.
- 3 Then let the wildest storms arise;
Let tempests mingle earth and skies;
No fatal shipwreck shall I fear,
But all my treasures with me bear.
- 4 If thou, my Jesus, still art nigh,
Cheerful I live, and cheerful die:
Secure, when mortal comforts flee,
To find ten thousand worlds in thee.

The Believer's spiritual Voyage. — CHRISTIAN HYMNS.

- 1 JESUS, at thy command
 I launch into the deep;
 And leave my native land,
 Where sin lulls all asleep.
 For thee I would the world resign,
 And sail to heaven with thee and thine.
- 2 Thou art my pilot wise;
 My compass is thy word;
 My soul each storm defies,
 While I have such a Lord!
 I trust thy faithfulness and power
 To save me in the trying hour.
- 3 Though rocks and quicksands deep
 Through all my passage lie,
 Yet Christ will safely keep
 And guide me with his eye;
 My anchor hope shall firm abide,
 And every boist'rous storm outride.
- 4 Come, Holy Ghost, and blow
 A prosp'rous gale of grace;
 Waft me from all below,
 To heaven, my destined place;
 Then in full sail my port I'll find,
 And leave the world and sin behind.

Life's Mariner. — REV. MELODIES.

- 1 THOUGH hard the winds are blowing,
 And loud the billows roar,
 Full swiftly we are going
 To our dear native shore.

- 2 The billows breaking o'er us,
 The storms that round us swell,
 Are aiding to restore us
 To all we loved so well.
- 3 So sorrow often presses
 Life's mariner along;
 Afflictions and distresses
 Are gales and billows strong.
- 4 The sharper and severer
 The storm of life we meet,
 The sooner and the nearer
 Is heaven's eternal seat.
- 5 Come then, afflictions dreary,
 Sharp sickness pierce my breast;
 You only bear the weary
 More quickly home to rest.

"There's sorrow on the deep." — J. H. HANAFORD.

- 1 A WAIL comes o'er the wave,
 And speaks of sighing there;
 It moans where billows never sleep,—
 There's sorrow on the deep.
- 2 Around the dying cot,
 Where raging fevers glow,
 With bursting hearts fond shipmates weep,—
 There's sorrow on the deep.
- 3 When threat'ning clouds appear,
 And winds and waves arise;
 When o'er the main wild tempests sweep,—
 There's sorrow on the deep.
- 4 Great God of earth and skies,
 In mercy deign to hear;
 In danger's hour the sailor keep,—
 When sorrow's on the deep.

Not ashamed of Jesus. — Mark viii. 38. — GRIGG.

- 1 JESUS, and can it ever be,
A mortal man ashamed of thee?
Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise;
Whose glories shine through endless days?
- 2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
May evening blush to own a star:
He sheds the beams of light divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.
- 3 Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may,
When I've no sins to wash away;
No tears to wipe, no joys to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save!
- 4 Ashamed of Jesus, that dear Friend
On whom my hopes of heaven depend!
No: when I blush, be this my shame,
That I no more revere his name.
- 5 Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
Till then, I boast a Saviour slain!
And O, may this my glory be,
That Christ is not ashamed of me.

A baptismal Hymn. — J. STENNETT.

- 1 THE great Redeemer we adore,
Who came the lost to seek and save,
Went humbly down from Jordan's shore,
To find a tomb beneath its wave.

- 2 "Thus it becomes us to fulfil
All righteousness," he meekly said;
Why should we then, to do his will,
Or be ashamed, or be afraid?
- 3 With thee, into thy wat'ry grave,
Lord, 't is our glory to descend;
'T is wondrous grace that gives us leave
To be baptized like Christ our Friend.
- 4 Yet as the yielding waves give way,
To let us see the light again,
So, on thy resurrection day,
The bands of death proved weak and vain.
- 5 Thus, when thou shalt again appear,
The gates of death shall open wide;
Our dust thy mighty voice shall hear,
And rise and triumph at thy side.

Buried with Christ. — WATTS.

- 1 Do we not know that solemn word,
That we are buried with the Lord,
Baptized into his death, and then
Put off the body of our sin?
- 2 Our souls receive diviner breath,
Raised from corruption, guilt, and death:
So from the grave did Christ arise,
And lives to God above the skies.
- 3 No more let sin nor Satan reign
Over our mortal flesh again;
The various lusts we served before
Shall have dominion now no more.

Uxbridge.Come, see the place where the Lord lay. — BALDWIN.

- 1 COME, happy souls, adore the Lamb,
Who loved our race ere time began ;
Who veiled his Godhead in our clay,
And in an humble manger lay.
- 2 To Jordan's stream the Spirit led,
To mark the path his saints should tread ;
Joyful they trace the sacred way,
To see the place where Jesus lay.
- 3 Immersed by John in Jordan's wave,
The Saviour left his watery grave ;
God owned the deed, approved the way,
And blessed the place where Jesus lay.
- 4 Come, all who love his precious name ;
Come, tread his steps, and learn of him ;
Happy beyond expression they,
Who find the place where Jesus lay.

In Jordan's swelling flood,
To show he must be soon baptized
In tears, and sweat, and blood.
- 2 Thus was his sacred body laid
Beneath the yielding wave ;
Thus was his sacred body raised
Out of the liquid grave.
- 3 Lord, we thy precepts would obey,
In thy own footsteps tread ;
Would die, be buried, rise with thee,
Our ever living Head.

The Pleasantness of Baptism. — E. W. FREEMAN.

- 1 HITHER we come, our dearest Lord,
 Obedient to thy sacred word,
 ' T is thou hast called our hearts to flee
 From sense and sin, and follow thee.
- 2 Here ranged along the water's side,
 Where gently rolls the silent tide,
 O what on earth can sweeter be,
 Than thus to come and follow thee !
- 3 When wandering in the vale of tears,
 Enslaved by sins and doubts and fears,
 Then didst thou come, our souls to free,
 And gav'st us grace to follow thee.

 O, while the way so plain we see,
 What can we do but follow thee ?

Wonders of Grace. — STENNETT.

- 1 LORD, at thy table we behold
The wonders of thy grace ;
But most of all admire, that we Should find a welcome place —
- 2 We, who are all defiled with sin,
And rebels to our God !
We, who have crucified thy Son,
And trampled on his blood !
- 3 What strange, surprising grace is this,
That we, so lost, have room !
Jesus our weary souls invites,
And freely bids us come.

Join all your sacred powers ;
No theme is like redeeming love ;

And canst thou, then, with sin beset,
Such charms, such matchless charms, forget ?

MISSIONARY HYMN. 7s & 6s. I. MASON,
From Carmina Sacra.

From Greenland's icy mountains, From India's coral strand, Where

Afric's sunny fountains roll down their golden sand, From many an ancient river, From many a palmy plain, They call us to de-liv-er, their land from error's chain.

To thee, O blessed Saviour, Our grateful songs we raise;

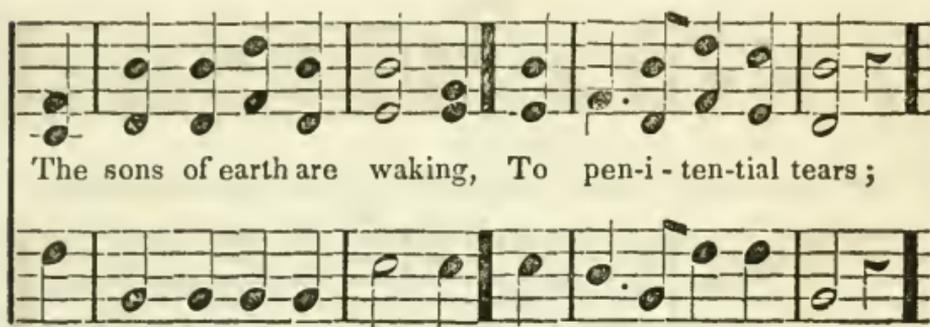

O tune our hearts and voices, Thy ho-ly name to praise;

'Tis by thy sov'reign mer-cy, We're here al-low'd to meet,

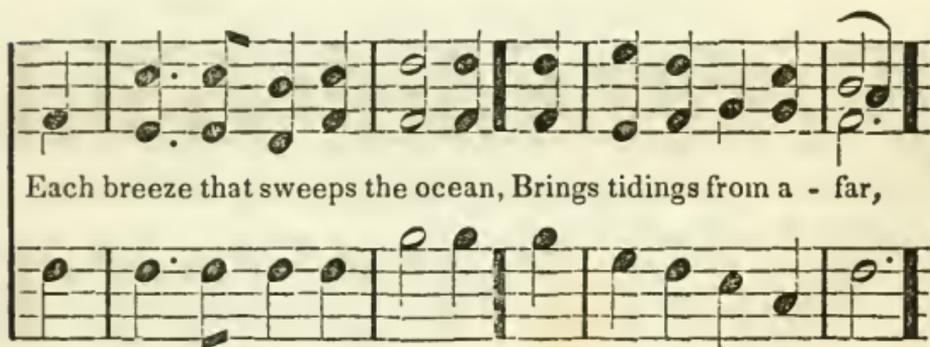

To join with friends and teachers, Thy blessing to en-treat.

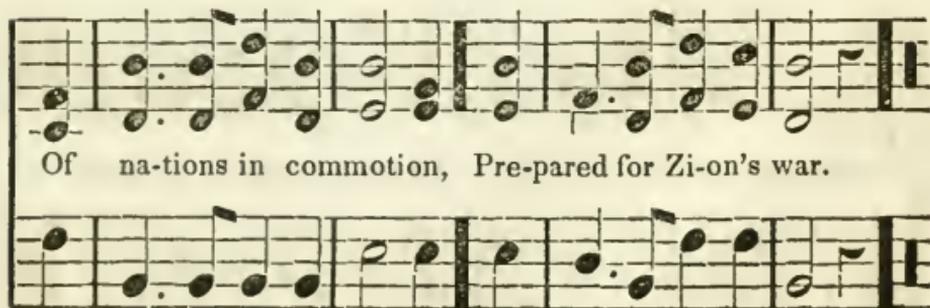

The morning light is breaking, The darkness disappears,

The sons of earth are waking, To pen-i - ten-tial tears ;

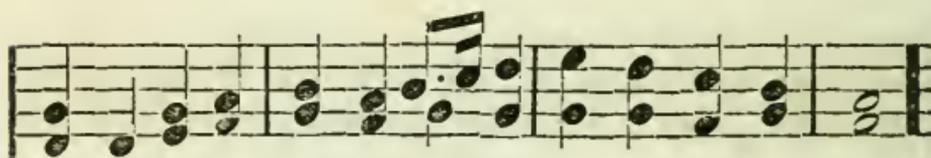

Each breeze that sweeps the ocean, Brings tidings from a - far,

Of na-tions in commotion, Pre-pared for Zi-on's war.

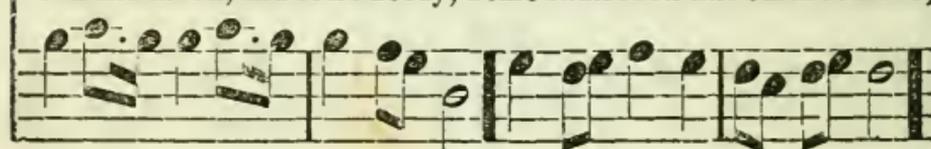

Rise, my soul, stretch out thy wings, Thy better portion trace;

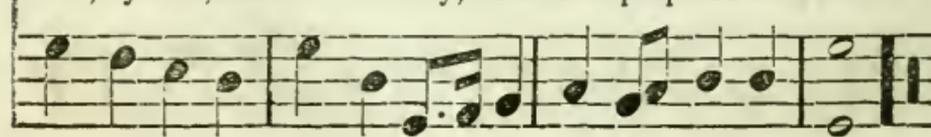

Rise from tran-si - to - ry things, To heav'n thy na - tive place ;

Sun and moon, and stars decay, Time shall soon this earth remove;

Rise, my soul, and haste a - way, To seats prepared a - bove.

Rock of a - ges, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in thee; Let the wa-ter and the blood, From thy wounded side that flow'd, Be of sin the per-fect cure,
